Welcome to the Lutheran Brethren Seminary!

Is the Holy Spirit calling you? Are people telling you that you have gifts for ministry? Are you sensing that you want a stronger biblical foundation for life? This catalogue is designed to help you decide if our programs might serve as the Holy Spirit’s tools to prepare you for the next step in following Christ. As a school we value:

- The message of God's matchless grace to us in Christ through the cross and the empty tomb
- The truth of the Holy Spirit’s work in leading us to repentance and in giving us faith to believe this message
- Christ’s call to those who repent and believe the gospel to follow him in being sent to our broken world with this message
- The authority of the Bible as God’s Word
- Excellence and integrity in our work and in our lives

As a faculty we value:

- The academic preparation necessary for teaching
- Personal experience in ministry
- Ministry preparation with a clear theological foundation
- Living and teaching with a passion for the gospel of Jesus Christ

Graduates of the Master of Divinity and the Diploma in Christian Ministry are equipped with knowledge, skills, and attitudes to serve as pastors and missionaries.

The Master of Arts degree offers students a strong Biblical and theological foundation for serving the Lord in many ministry roles including such callings as parish nurse, youth pastor, missionary, and Director of Christian Education.

The one-year Certificate of Theological Studies program serves several unique preparation needs such as:

- Adult learners preparing for lay ministry or specific overseas mission assignments
- College graduates wanting a solid biblical and theological foundation in preparation
- Youth ministers wanting biblical and practical training for ministry

Our Seminary is chartered by the Church of the Lutheran Brethren. We have been granted candidate accreditation status by the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools. Our campus is located in Fergus Falls, Minnesota, an all-American City with a population of over 13,000. The city is a great place for families with its many parks and both private and public school opportunities. Situated along the peaceful Ottertail River, the setting provides a reflective atmosphere conducive to theological study and ministry preparation.

Please give us a call and visit our campus. We would love to talk with you about how our school might be involved in your preparation for ministry.

Historical Survey of the Seminary

The roots of the Lutheran Brethren Seminary (LBS) are found in the great spiritual revivals of the 1890’s, in the Northwestern Free Church Mission School, and in the founding of the Church of the Lutheran Brethren (CLB) in 1900.

In these spiritual revivals among Norwegian-American Lutherans in the 1890’s, large numbers of young people came to a knowledge of personal salvation, and craved an opportunity for Biblical studies beyond what was given in the local congregations.

In response to the need, Rev. Halvor Jenssen founded the first Lutheran Bible School in the United States, the Northwestern Free Church Mission School, in a farmhouse near Lowry, MN in 1897. The next year classes were held in a church in Belgrade, MN, and in 1901 the school moved to Grand Forks, ND and was renamed “Northwestern Lutheran Bible School.” The school offered courses in Biblical studies, missions, doctrine, personal evangelism, and Christian education. The school functioned as a Bible training school. This school closed in the summer of 1903. Several Lutheran Brethren students were in attendance at the time of the closing, and a number had previously graduated from the school.

In less than a year after the founding of the Church of the Lutheran Brethren in 1900, the need for a seminary for training Lutheran Brethren pastors and missionaries was felt.

In response to that need, the 1903 Synodical Convention authorized the founding of the Lutheran Bible School in Wahpeton, ND that fall. The pastor’s course offered theological training for persons going into the ministry, and the Bible (parochial) course was designed as a Bible school for young people wishing special training in the Bible and for doing more effective work in the congregations as laypersons.

Upon popular demand from parents for a four-year high school, the freshman class was offered in 1916, and the first high school senior class graduated in 1920. The increased enrollment led to moving the school to Grand Forks, ND in 1918. In 1935, the Lutheran Bible School moved to Fergus Falls, MN, locating on the spacious and beautiful campus of the former Park Region Luther College.

In 1948, the CLB renamed the school system “Lutheran Brethren Schools,” giving the high school department the name “Hillcrest Lutheran Academy,” and retaining the name of “Lutheran Bible School and Seminary” for the Bible (college) and Seminary (theological) departments. Hillcrest is now a subsidiary organization of the CLB.

In 1992, the Board of Education changed the name of the Lutheran Brethren Junior Bible College to the Lutheran Center for Christian Learning (LCCL). The LCCL continued until 2003.

LBS still functions as the training institution for those preparing for ministry in the CLB. The Seminary offers two graduate degrees: a Master of Theological Studies (two years) and a Master of Divinity (three years). The Seminary also offers the Diploma in Christian Ministry Program. Beginning in the Fall Semester, 1998, Lutheran Brethren Seminary has offered the one-year Certificate of Theological Studies with the following emphases: Lay Ministry, Bible & Theology, and Missions.

Accreditation

LBS is a member of the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS) [PO Box 328, Forest, VA 24551; Telephone: (434) 525 9539; email: info@tracs.org; website: www.tracs.org] having been awarded Candidate status as a Category III institution by the TRACS Accreditation (CHEA), the United States Department of Education, and the International Network for Quality Assurance Agencies in Higher Education (INQAAHE). TRACS has authorized Certificates, the Diploma in Christian Ministry, the Master of Theological Studies, and the Master of Divinity.
What We Believe
The Doctrinal Statement of the Church of the Lutheran Brethren

1. The Bible, including both Old and New Testaments as originally given, is the verbally and plenarily inspired Word of God and is free from error in the whole and in the part, and is therefore the final authoritative guide for faith and conduct.

2. There is one God eternally existent in three distinct persons in one divine essence, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

3. God the Father has revealed Himself as the Creator and preserver of the universe, to Whom the entire creation and all creatures are subject.

4. God created Adam and Eve in His image to live in fellowship with Him. They fell into sin through the temptation of Satan and thereby lost fellowship with God. Through their disobedience the entire human race became totally depraved, that is, self-centered sinners who oppose God, and who by nature are unable to trust, fear or love Him. They are subject to the devil, and are condemned to death under the eternal wrath of God.

5. Jesus Christ, the Eternal Son, is the image of the invisible God. To accomplish our redemption, He became fully human, being conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. Jesus Christ, who is true God and true man, by His perfect obedience and substitutionary death on the cross, has purchased our redemption. He arose from the dead for our justification in the body in which He was crucified. He ascended into heaven, where He is now seated at the right hand of God, the Father, as our interceding High Priest. He will come a second time personally, bodily, and visibly to gather the believers unto Himself and to establish His millennial kingdom. He will judge the living and the dead and make an eternal separation between believers and unbelievers. His kingdom shall have no end.

6. The Holy Spirit is a divine person eternally one with the Father and with the Son. Through the Word of God, He convicts people of sin, persuades them to confess their sinfulness to God and calls them to faith through the Gospel. He regenerates, sanctifies, and preserves believers in the one true faith. He comforts, guides, equips, directs, and empowers the church to fulfill the great commission.

7. The knowledge and benefit of Christ’s redemption from sin is brought to the human race through the means of grace, namely the Word and the sacraments.

   a. Through the Word of the Law God brings sinners to know their lost condition and to repent. Through the Word of the Gospel He brings sinners to believe in Jesus Christ, to be justified, to enter the process of sanctification, and to have eternal life. This occurs as the Holy Spirit awakens them to see their sin, convicts them of their guilt of sin, and calls them to repent and believe, inviting and enabling them to accept God’s grace in Christ. Each one who thus believes is instantly forgiven and credited with Christ’s righteousness. The Word then teaches and guides the believer to lead a godly life.

   b. In the Sacrament of Baptism, God offers the benefits of Christ’s redemption to all people and graciously bestows the washing of regeneration and newness of life to all who believe. God calls the baptized person to live in daily repentance, that is, in sorrow for sin, in turning from sin, and in personal faith in the forgiveness of sin obtained by Christ. By grace we are daily given the power to overcome sinful desires and live a new life in Christ. Those who do not continue to live in God’s grace need to be brought again to repentance and faith through the Law and Gospel.
c. Because the sinfulness of human nature passes on from generation to generation and the promise of God’s grace includes little children, we baptize infants, who become members of Christ’s believing church through baptism. These children need to come to know that they are sinners with a sinful nature that opposes God. Through the work of the Holy Spirit, they need to confess their sinfulness and yield to God; and possess for themselves forgiveness of their sin through Jesus Christ, as they are led from the faith received in infant baptism into a clear conscious personal faith in Christ as their Lord and Savior and being assured of salvation, rely solely on the finished work of Christ, and the power of the Gospel to live as children of God.

d. In the Sacrament of Holy Communion, Christ gives to the communicants His body and blood in, with, and under the bread and wine. He declares the forgiveness of sin to all believers, and strengthens their faith.

8. Eternal salvation is available to every living human being on earth by God’s grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone. This salvation consists of an instantaneous aspect and an ongoing, continual aspect.

a. Justification is God’s gracious act by which He, for Christ’s sake, instantaneously acquits repentant and believing sinners and credits them with Christ’s righteousness. At that moment, God gives each one who believes a new and godly nature and the Holy Spirit begins the process of sanctification. There is no place for human effort in justification.

b. Sanctification is God’s gracious, continual work of spiritual renewal and growth in the life of every justified person. Through the means of grace, the Holy Spirit works to reproduce the character of Christ within the lives of all believers, instructing and urging them to live out their new nature. The Holy Spirit enables believers more and more to resist the devil, to overcome the world, and to count themselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus. The Holy Spirit produces spiritual fruit in and bestows spiritual gifts upon all believers. He calls, empowers and equips them to serve God in the home, in the community, and as part of the Church Universal. The process of sanctification will be complete only when the believer reaches glory.

9. The Church Universal consists of all those who truly believe on Jesus Christ as Savior. The local congregation is an assembly of believers in a certain locality among whom the Gospel is purely taught and the sacraments are rightly administered. The confessing membership of the local congregation shall include only those who have been baptized into “the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,” confess personal faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, maintain a good reputation in the community and accept the constitution of the Church of the Lutheran Brethren. It cannot, however, be avoided that hypocrites might be mixed in the congregation; that is, those whose unbelief is not evident to the congregation.

10. The Church of the Lutheran Brethren practices the congregational form of church government and the autonomy of the local congregations. The office of pastor and elder is to be filled by men only. The synodical administration has an advisory function as it relates to the congregation, and an administrative function as it relates to the cooperative efforts of the congregations.

11. The Lutheran confessions are a summary of Bible doctrines. We adhere to the following confessional writings: The Apostles’ Creed, Nicene and Athanasian Creeds, unaltered Augsburg Confession, and Luther’s Small Catechism.
The Mission of the Seminary

Lutheran Brethren Seminary serves the church and world by preparing servants of Christ for a life of ministry in God’s mission and for equipping God’s people to serve in God’s mission.

The Seminary serves the people of the Church of the Lutheran Brethren by living and preparing others to live in the blessing of the Triune God and his call to participate in his mission of grace to bless all nations in Christ. “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.” (Matthew 28:18-20)

The Seminary prepares people to enter the diverse cultural contexts of the world through particular ministries as Christ’s servants shaped by his words and wounds, speaking his gospel in word and deed. The seminary approaches its ministry in dependence on the Triune God who speaks truth through his inspired scriptures.

Core Abilities

Graduates of Lutheran Brethren Seminary will:

- Embrace a Christ-centered understanding of Scripture
- Demonstrate skills that correspond to the doing of ministry
- Exhibit attitudes that characterize God’s servants
- Model godly character in life and in ministry

Our prayer is that students will be shaped by the Words and Wounds of Christ to live as servants of Christ in God’s Church and world.

The Seminary fulfills its mission in partnership with and by the support of the Church of the Lutheran Brethren. This church’s mission is: “In response to God’s person and grace, we worship Him with everything we are in Christ, serve one another in Christian love and share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with all people.” This church lives out its passions in the following core values:

- The Bible is central in our congregations and in our households.
- The Gospel is our treasure and our joy.
- We revere God’s Law.
- The Word and the Sacraments are God’s precious means of grace.
- We cherish the love and fellowship of God’s people.
- We long for people to trust in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, to come to know Him in a personal way.
- We seek to be people of prayer.

1 See http://www.clba.org/about-us/what-we-believe/statement-core-values for a commentary on these core values.
Academic Philosophy

The Seminary is committed to the concept that we are spiritual, mental, emotional, social, and physical beings. Therefore, the educational process must include the development of each of these dimensions. The educational process is not limited to the classroom, but includes the entire range of interactions within the student’s environment.

The Bible holds a primary and central place in the curriculum. It is recognized that the Bible is God’s special revelation and that it is the source and norm for our view of God. The Seminary also reserves the right to pursue its search for truth through diligent study of humanity and other elements of God’s creation that constitute general revelation.

The pursuit of truth, in the context suggested above, should be approached with vigor and reverence. The basis of our teaching and learning should be that the source of our truth about God and His relationship with humanity is located in the Scriptures.

Academic Freedom

The Seminary encourages both faculty members and students in the search for truth. The right to examine all relevant data will be protected. Academic freedom and neutrality are not considered as identical. It should be recognized that the intent to advance a particular point of view, so long as all the facts are accessible and the argument is distinguished from the inquiry, is not antithetical to academic freedom.

Spiritual Formation and Community

Seminary is a great deal more than simply going to classes and doing one’s assignments conscientiously. It is more than just learning theology as an academic discipline. It is growing in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ (2 Peter 3:18).

Every class should be seen as an opportunity to learn to know God better. To mature in one’s appreciation of the greatness of God and of His grace in Jesus Christ is an outcome of one’s seminary studies to be prized and pursued.

Seminary is also an ideal place to learn to know oneself better. The study of Holy Scripture and its formulation into Lutheran theology forces a person to face up to the reality of one’s sinfulness and need of God’s daily forgiveness and renewing grace. Pastors, of all people, need to know themselves as repentant and forgiven sinners. We minister most effectively out of this brokenness.

Each believer in Jesus Christ has been given by the Holy Spirit, one or more spiritual gifts (Romans 12:3-7; 1 Corinthians 12; Ephesians 4:11-13). It is to be hoped that through practical ministry opportunities, the affirmation of one’s peers, and the study of the Scriptures, each student might come to a clear understanding of his/her gifts and place in the ministry of the body of Christ.

Jesus said to His followers on the night before He was crucified, “A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another,” (John 13:34, 35). The Lutheran Brethren Seminary is a community, a community of professors and students, a community of school families. God calls us to love and care for one another, to speak well of one another, and to encourage one another. Many of the friendship bonds formed in seminary continue throughout one’s life in the church.

Spiritual community includes caring for our brothers and sisters. Therefore we will keep watch not only of our doctrine, but also our life so that we put no obstacle in the way of other believers. As St. Paul wrote to the young pastor, Timothy, “… set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith and in purity” (1 Tim. 4:12).
Code of Conduct

The Word of God is the final authority for all student life matters. The seminary’s biblically-based curriculum and student life is designed to encourage character. Character displeasing to the Lord is corrected through exhortation, counsel, and implementation of biblical principles (1 Thessalonians 4:1). The personnel of LBS seek to consistently commend students in their daily walk for attitudes and actions that please the Lord.

LBS is committed to education for Christian leadership. The seminary also aims to encourage students to develop spiritually with an awareness of ethical and moral issues, and to be resolute regarding their own responsibility for upholding and strengthening Christian standards of behavior. Students are expected to live a life that reflects the Lordship of Jesus Christ and the authority of the Word of God, resulting in spiritual maturity in Christ manifested by the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23).

Students are expected to obey applicable local, state and federal laws as well as the policies of the seminary. As they desire rights and responsibilities for themselves, they are also expected to respect the rights and responsibilities of others. For infractions of laws, regulations, policies and standards, students may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from the institution. Such disciplinary action may be imposed for violations that occur off campus when the violation may have an adverse effect on the educational mission of the seminary.

Student Opportunities

The Seminary experience is made up of more than attending classes. Various out-of-classroom opportunities provide the student with a richness of growth for present and future ministry. While attendance at most of these functions is not mandatory, the quality of the learning experience is such that many who are presently in ministry value them for continuing education.

A.A. Pedersen Lectureship in Preaching

Beginning in October, 1991, the Seminary has sponsored an annual lectureship in preaching named in honor of a former LBS president and faculty member who was esteemed for his gifts as a Bible teacher and preacher. Each year this lectureship brings to our campus one of America’s ablest preachers.

Past Lecturers include:
- Dr. Haddon Robinson
- Dr. Walter Kaiser
- Dr. Paul Maier
- Mr. Ken Davis
- Dr. Bryan Chapell

The October 2 & 3, 2011, Pedersen Lecturer will be Rev. John Nunes, President of Lutheran World Relief, Baltimore, Maryland.

J-Term

Three days each January are set aside for a J(anuary)-term that offers students unique learning opportunities beyond the normal classroom.

J-term serves a number of important purposes. First, it allows current seminary students to receive additional instruction on a short-term basis, particularly in the area of practical theology. In addition, J-term courses also offer parish pastors an excellent opportunity to enhance their preparation for doing the Lord’s work. Thirdly, the presence of active pastors on campus and in the classroom provides the seminary student with a valuable opportunity to interact with those actively engaged in ministry and to begin relationships with future colleagues. In addition, J-Term can also serve to fulfill partial requirement in a directed readings course.

Some examples of past J-Term topics include:
- Learning Styles
- Creative Teaching Methods
- Creating a Missions Friendly Church
- Evangelism in the Small Town
- Ministering to the Divorced
- Stress and Burnout
Chapel

Students and faculty assemble for chapel on Tuesdays and Thursdays to glorify God through singing, prayer and the proclamation of God’s Word. The intent of these spiritual gatherings is to bring the seminary community away from the demands and pressures of everyday life for worship and to receive spiritual care and nurture as a community in Christ. Weekly chapel is a vital part of our spiritual formation as individuals and as a Christian community, and an essential complement to our academic pursuits. Attendance is expected.

Church Life

Students are expected to be part of a church family while attending seminary. There are several Lutheran Brethren and affiliated churches in the area where the students often find their church home.

Prayer Emphasis

Each semester, time is set apart for meditation and prayer. The Student Council and the Seminary Faculty make the arrangements for this special time.

Ministry Opportunities

Seminary students, especially after their first year, have opportunities to do pulpit supply preaching in various churches. These churches customarily give an honorarium for these services.

A number of churches in the area provide seminary students with part-time student pastor or youth pastor employment. These ministry opportunities provide an excellent combination of practical ministry experience, seminary study, and useful income. These positions may involve some or all of the following: pulpit preaching, confirmation instruction, visitation, or youth ministry. Arrangements and supervision for this type of part-time ministry employment are made through the Seminary Field Experience Supervisor (see p. 4 “Field Experience Supervisor”).

Student Council

The Seminary Student Council is organized with student officers and a faculty advisor. The student council usually meets on Mondays following second period to conduct business and for prayer. A Spring Banquet is planned each year at which graduating students are honored. A Seminary Deacon Fund to help with special needs is managed by the students with profits from student-run candy and soda machines located in the seminary commons area.

Sports Opportunities

Although organized athletics are not a part of the seminary program, seminary students often find ways to enjoy sports.

Each year Hillcrest Academy sponsors an Invitational Basketball Tournament comprised of church teams from across the country. The seminary student body usually fields a team for this competition.

Seminary students and their families also receive a membership discount at the local YMCA.

Advising and Spiritual Formation Groups

Each academic year, students are assigned to individual faculty members for academic advisement and spiritual nurture. Students assigned in their first year at seminary will continue with that faculty advisor through their graduation. Advising and Spiritual Formation Groups meet on Wednesdays with their faculty advisor for a time of reading devotional literature and praying together. All faculty members are encouraged to establish relationships with our students and encourage them in their ongoing growth in Christian character. In addition, faculty advisors assume the following academic objectives for each student in their Advising and Spiritual Formation Group:

• Assist in orienting students to seminary life and LBS community
• Assist students in developing educational goals
• Assist students in determining the way to reach educational goals through program planning
• Provide accurate information regarding academic programs, procedures and policies
• Provide students with or direct the student to career information
• Be an example to students of a Godly professional educator.
Buildings and Equipment

The Broen Media Center is the official name for the building that houses the seminary. Located in the center of the campus, this building houses the seminary library, classrooms, student room, conference room, commons area, faculty offices, President’s Office, and a reception area.

Seminary students may obtain a key to access both the front door and the library as the building is locked on weekdays after five p.m. and on weekends and holidays.

Seminary Women

“Seminary Women,” as it is called, provides women students and the wives of seminary men opportunities for fellowship and support in seminary life. The gatherings range from social activities to study sessions in which speakers address various topics. One on one friendship and prayer support by wives of local pastors and LBS faculty is also offered.

J-Term

Three days each January are set aside for a J(anuary)-term that offers students unique learning opportunities beyond the normal classroom.

J-term serves a number of important purposes. First, it allows current seminary students to receive additional instruction on a short-term basis, particularly in the area of practical theology. In addition, J-term courses also offer parish pastors an excellent opportunity to enhance their preparation for doing the Lord’s work. Thirdly, the presence of active pastors on campus and in the classroom provides the seminary student with a valuable opportunity to interact with those actively engaged in ministry and to begin relationships with future colleagues. In addition, J-Term can also serve to fulfill partial requirement in a directed readings course.
Academic Load

The degree programs outlined on pp. 21-28 are mapped out for full-time study. (14-18 credits per semester). However, some students find it wise to reduce their academic loads to accommodate their family life, employment, or pace of learning. For example, a student who takes 4 years to work through the 3-year curriculum listed on p. 23 would meet with the faculty’s understanding and support.

It is policy that a student in any degree program is not allowed to take more than 18 credits per semester unless given special permission by the Academic Dean.

It is recommended that a student taking 14 or more credits per semester be employed for no more than 20 hours per week.

Although the seminary is usually able to schedule its semester classes on a Monday through Thursday academic week, any full-time student (14-18 credits) is expected to be available for classes Monday through Friday.

Open Studies

Students who wish to earn credits and/or gain ministry skills but are not committed to a particular seminary program may apply and register as Open Studies (OS) students for intensive or full-semester courses on a part-time non-degree basis. Although OS credits may count toward a subsequent degree or certificate program, OS students are not admitted to a program leading to a degree or diploma. (Students whose ultimate goal is to obtain a certificate or degree in the future are encouraged to contact the seminary registrar or an advisor for detailed program advice.) A maximum of 24 total credit hours may be taken with the selection of courses limited to the courses available at the time of registration. Students must meet all prerequisites (including biblical languages for exegetical courses).

Adding or Dropping a Course

(1) It is the student’s responsibility to inform the instructor and the registrar that a course is being dropped. For all course changes, the student must complete a Drop/Add form available in the Registrar’s office. This form requires a signature by both the student and the student’s advisor.

(2) A student may not add a course or transfer from one course to another after the close of the second week of the semester.

(3) No one may drop a course or change a course from credit to audit later than the close of the 8th week of a semester.

(4) For tuition refund information see “Financial Information” on p. 20.

Intensive Courses

Students enrolled in Intensive Courses need to complete the required pre-class assignments as spelled out in the course syllabus before classes begin. Students must also complete the requirements of the course as outlined in the course syllabus.

Incomplete Course Work

Unless an extension is granted (see below) a course not completed by the last day of the semester will be assigned a final grade on the basis of the work already submitted. This policy also applies to courses taken by directed study.

Extension for Late Work

If a student has experienced special circumstances that prevent the completion of a course by the designated time set by the instructor, he/she may request an extension. This policy also applies to courses taken by intensive and directed study.

(1) The student must file a “Course Extension Form” (available in the Registrar’s office) for each class in which an extension is desired and completed at the designated time set by the instructor.

(2) Upon completion of the extension form, the student must secure the written approval of the course instructor. The instructor will determine the validity of the request and may choose to refuse an extension. Upon the signed approval, the form will be placed in the student’s file by the instructor.

(3) The maximum course extension deadline is 6 weeks.

(4) During the extension period the course will be listed as “INC” (Incomplete).

(5) If the extension date is not met, the course will be graded on the basis of work submitted before the completion deadline.

(6) If the incomplete course is required for the student’s degree and receives the final grade “F”, the course must be retaken with full payment of tuition.

(7) No student will be allowed to graduate with an incomplete or failed required course.

Examinations

All examinations must be taken when scheduled unless there is a valid excuse. The schedule for taking a missed exam will be set by the instructor. Final examinations are held the last week of each semester. An instructor may choose to use the final examination time for a class period if no final examination for the course is given.
Academic Integrity

It is expected that all students will complete their studies in a responsible and honest manner. Cheating, submitting the same work for more than one course, and not giving proper acknowledgement for the ideas and data of others is irresponsible and dishonest and therefore subject to disciplinary action.

Attendance Policy

Faithful class attendance is expected. Students are permitted absences during a semester without penalty up to the number of times a class meets each week. After this, absences will reflect adversely on the student's final grade. Class attendance of at least 75% is required in order to be eligible to receive credit for the course. Excused absences are granted for illness and other necessary situations. Common courtesy dictates that the instructor be notified of any absence so the proper notation can be made. Non-emergency absences should be approved beforehand by the instructor. Students desiring an audio recording of a missed class period are responsible for making all recording arrangements and must be granted approval by the instructor.

Given their compressed nature, complete attendance of all class periods for intensive (block) courses is very important. Students taking an intensive course are allowed to miss 2 hours for a 2 credit class and 3 hours for a 3 credit class. Any missed class periods of an intensive course must be recovered by the student via audio or video recording and be reported on by the student to the instructor in order to demonstrate assimilation of the missed material.

Courses Taken as Audits

Auditing a course involves attending class lectures but not writing any of the exams or other assignments. A seminarian accepted into a program of study may audit any class free of charge. Class attendance of at least 75% is required for the course to be recorded as an official audit on the student's transcript.

The standard fee for auditing a course on campus is $95. This fee is not refundable. Spouses of seminary students who have been accepted into a program may audit any course free of charge.

Courses Taken by Directed Study

From time to time it is necessary for a student to take one or more courses in the seminary curriculum by directed study, that is, on a one-to-one basis with the professor. A student may transfer in from another institution for his/her last year of seminary and one or more courses may not be available during that year. Occasionally, a colloquy student will need a course in this manner. Furthermore, a student may be forced to take a course by directed study because he/she neglected to take it when it was offered during the regular cycle.

Because of added expense created by production, administration, and faculty involvement, directed study courses have an additional $50 per credit hour charge added to the normal tuition fee.

Directed study courses must be completed within the semester or summer in which they are started. The same policies for incomplete work and extensions apply to courses taken by directed study.

Field Experience Courses

The intent of these courses is to give defined and intentional “hands on” experience in supervised situations that allow for reflection on and growth in the student’s ability to minister in a wide variety of situations. Ministry settings may include: local congregations, Lake Region Hospital, retirement centers, nursing homes, etc. The student processes these practical experiences by interacting with readings, journaling, and dialoguing with the on-site supervisor and the Seminary Field Experience Supervisor.

Practical Experience Credits

In addition to Field Experience credits, two additional credits may be earned through supervised practical ministry experiences. Arrangements for earning such credits must be made with the Seminary Field Experience Supervisor.

Review of Student Progress

A student’s first year of seminary is considered probationary. At the end of the first year of study the faculty will review his/her academic progress, and potential for ministry. At this time the faculty will recommend whether the student should continue in the program.

To assist the student and the faculty in the educational process, a series of tests is administered by a licensed psychologist.

Time Limits

All requirements for the Master of Divinity (MDiv) degree, normally completed in three years, must be met within eight years of initially enrolling. Requirements for the Master of Theological Studies (MTS), normally completed in two years, must be completed within five years. Requirements for the Certificate in Theological Studies (CTS), normally completed in one year, must be met within three years. Students are encouraged to take into consideration commitments of family, ministry and work when planning their course schedules. A petition for extension of these times limits must be made to the Dean of the Seminary and is subject to approval by the entire faculty.
Academic Probation

At any time after the first year a student may be placed on academic probation if his/her grade point average falls below 2.00 or if there is incomplete work. Failure to correct the situation can result in dismissal. The student will have two semesters to bring his/her GPA up to 2.00. A student who has been asked to withdraw for academic or other reasons may reapply at some future time.

Leave of Absence/Withdrawal

A student intending to take an extended leave of absence from LBS (for a semester or longer) must consult with his or her academic advisor and the Dean of the Seminary and must complete the Leave of Absence / Withdrawal Form. A student may request a leave of absence of up to one academic year. If a leave is granted, the student may resume studies at any time during the leave period without reapplication.

A student intending to withdraw from LBS must consult with his or her advisor and initiate a withdrawal process with the Dean of the Seminary. Ceasing to submit assignments and/or failure to attend classes does not constitute withdrawal, nor does it relieve students of their financial obligations to the seminary. A completed Leave of Absence/Withdrawal Form must be submitted to the office of the Registrar before any refunds can be given (see page 20 for refund schedule).

If a student withdraws or is dismissed from LBS and subsequently desires to reenroll, the student must submit a letter requesting readmission and reapply. The letter must indicate what the student has done since leaving seminary, what their current goals are, and how finishing a seminary program contributes to accomplishing those goals. If readmitted to a program, the student is subject to the graduation requirements and fees set forth in the catalog at the time of readmission and registration.

Certificate and Degree Transfer

Students having graduated with a Certificate of Theological Studies may transfer credits as applicable into the Master of Theological Studies (MTS) or Master of Divinity (MDiv) programs. Students having graduated with a MTS may transfer credit hours as applicable into the MDiv program. At least 30 semester hours of the MTS or MDiv degree must be completed at the Lutheran Brethren Seminary.

Transfer of Credit

Credits for course work taken at other accredited graduate-level institutions with a grade of C or above are normally granted complete or near-complete transfer credit upon approval by the Registrar. Credits from non-accredited graduate-level institutions are examined on a case-by-case basis. At least 30 credits required for the MDiv or MTS must be taken at LBS. At least 15 credits required for the CTS must be taken at LBS.

As student who already has a theological master’s degree and seeks the MDiv or MTS degree may transfer in with advanced standing, but must then complete at least 30 credits and meet all the requirements of the catalog at the time of enrollment.

Graduation

Students must declare in December, at the time of registration, their intent to graduate. Approval must be received by the Academic Dean after the students’ records are reviewed by the Registrar. The Seminary Faculty conducts interviews with graduating students. All work for graduating seniors must be completed prior to graduation.

Pastoral Licensure of Students

It is seminary policy that any student who is to be licensed by the Church of the Lutheran Brethren for pastoral ministry shall remain enrolled in the Lutheran Brethren Seminary carrying a minimum of 6 credits. Further, licensed students shall not be involved in placing future students in the congregation they are serving. Placements shall be managed by the seminary.

Pastoral Candidate Program

After the seminary graduate is called by a Lutheran Brethren or affiliate congregation and assumes that pastoral assignment, he is paired with a mentor-pastor who serves in a coaching type relationship during his first year of pastoral ministry. The Pastoral Candidate Program is a function of the Synodical President’s office which oversees the first year of ministry in preparation for the graduate’s ordination.

The President’s office and the seminary faculty provide advice to both the local churches and the student in this call process. The seminary is committed to be a continuing resource for the pastor.
Transcripts

Requests for transcripts should be made to the Seminary Registrar. Official transcripts are issued only upon written authorization by the student. Official transcripts will be sent only to the institution or agency requiring them. Unofficial transcripts will be issued to the students for personal evaluation of academic progress. Three transcripts are issued without charge. The charge for each subsequent transcript is $5 pre-paid. If the transcript is to be issued by a given date, the registrar’s office must be informed in writing at least one week beforehand.

No transcript of credits or issuance of diplomas or degrees will be given unless all school bills are paid in full or satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Business Office. A transcript will not be sent out with an incomplete course listed on it or with an outstanding balance on that person’s school account.

Grading and Transcript Notations

The following criteria should be taken into consideration in understanding an assigned letter grade for course work:

"A" Outstanding and excellent
"B" Good and commendable
"C" Acceptable
"D" Minimal performance
"F" Unacceptable

Financial Information

Tuition Charges
(1) The cost for the 2011-2012 academic year is $340 per credit.
(2) Students accepted into a program of study may audit courses and take J-Term courses free of charge.
(3) Spouses of seminary students accepted into a program of study and retired CLB pastors may audit courses free of charge.
(4) Open Studies students taking courses should note that the total tuition amount is the responsibility of the student. No financial aid is available for Open Studies students. The total tuition fees are due on or before the first day of class. (See Open Studies Category- p.16)
(6) Distance learning and directed study courses carry an additional $50 per credit fee for production, administration, mailing, and faculty involvement.
(7) An estimated cost for books per semester for a full-time student is approximately $300.
(8) A course retaken to change a previous grade will be charged regular tuition.

Refunds
In the case of students who drop a course before the end of a semester, refunds on tuition will be made at the following rates:
(1) Within the first week, full refund with proper approval of the Administration;
(2) Second and third weeks, 80%;
(3) Fourth and fifth weeks, 60%;
(4) Sixth and seventh weeks, 40%;
(5) Eighth and ninth weeks, 20%;
(6) No refunds after the ninth week;
(7) The registration fee is non-refundable.

Financial Aid
The churches of the Church of the Lutheran Brethren support the seminary by providing two-thirds of the school’s operating costs. In this way the amount of financial responsibility to the student is significantly reduced. The remaining one-third of the seminary cost is covered through student tuition for which the student is responsible. Limited financial aid is available to assist some students with these tuition costs. No financial aid is available for Open Studies students.

Health Insurance and Housing
Students are responsible for their own health insurance and housing.

Student Accounts
Student costs are payable at registration. A payment plan may be arranged through the Seminary finance office. Unless pre-approved by the Lutheran Brethren Seminary Executive Committee, students will not be allowed to register if their account is greater than one semester’s cost. A student’s account must be paid in full or be current on an approved payment plan in order to receive a diploma (certificate, etc.) or to obtain the release of official transcripts.

Veteran Information
Lutheran Brethren Seminary is approved by the Minnesota State Approving Agency for training under the G. I. Bill. Applicants for these benefits should apply for educational assistance at their nearest regional Veterans Administration Office or Lutheran Brethren Seminary.

A person who meets the basic service requirements and who has been separated or discharged under conditions other than dishonorable may be entitled to educational assistance. A student receiving VA educational assistance is required to maintain satisfactory progress and conduct according to standards established and enforced by the institution, fully and clearly published in the institution’s catalog, approved by the State Approving Agency, and accepted by the Veterans Administration. If the student fails to maintain satisfactory progress or conduct, payments will then be suspended. Regardless of whether the student desires to remain in the same program or desires to change institutions or programs, VA counseling is required before benefits can be resumed.

Refund Policy for Veterans
For students enrolled under the provisions of Public Law 89-358, the school will refund the unused portion of tuition, fees, and other charges in the event the veteran or eligible person fails to enter the course, withdraws, or is discontinued there from at any time prior to completion. The amount charged to the veteran or eligible person for tuition, fees, and other charges for a portion of the course will not exceed the approximate pro rate portion of the total charges for tuition, fees, and other charges that the length of the completed portion of the course bears to its total length.
Academic Programs

Lutheran Brethren Seminary offers the following programs of study:
- Master of Divinity
- Master of Theological Studies
- Diploma in Christian Ministry
- Certificate of Theological Studies with emphases in:
  - Lay Ministry
  - Bible and Theology
  - Missions

Prerequisites

Admission to a seminary program of study is given to men and women of approved Christian character who possess such aptitudes as would seem to qualify them for future service in the Kingdom of God. While the degree, diploma and certificate programs are all taught at the graduate level, the Certificate of Theological Studies program is specifically designed for personal enrichment and growth in lay ministry.

The basic academic requirement for admission to the Master’s programs is a bachelor’s degree or its equivalent. For the Diploma in Christian Ministry and the certificate program, the student must meet the required prerequisites or their equivalents outlined on pp. 25-27.

An official transcript of high school and college work must be forwarded to the registrar for evaluation before registration is completed.

Greek Requirement

Competency in New Testament Greek is vital to Christian pastoral ministry. Prospective Master of Divinity students are urged to take New Testament Greek while pursuing their undergraduate degree. Students entering the Master of Divinity or Diploma Program with a deficiency in Greek must successfully complete NT 103 (or its equivalent). For additional information contact the Department of New Testament Studies.

Pre-Seminary Study

The following is a list of fields of study with which a master’s student should have acquaintance before he/she has completed his/her work for a baccalaureate degree in preparation for seminary study. It is further suggested that three-fourths of the pre-seminary training be taken in these fields, with the field concentration being drawn from any two or three fields.

Courses in education will also prove very advantageous to anyone entering pastoral work.
Master of Divinity Degree

The Master of Divinity Degree is a graduate degree in theology which prepares one to serve within the Church of the Lutheran Brethren, in other church bodies, and in mission organizations. This degree assumes a Bachelor of Arts or Science Degree. The Master of Divinity Degree is granted to seminary students upon the completion of the following academic requirements and upon the recommendation of the faculty:

1. The baccalaureate degree earned prior to registration in Seminary.
2. 92 credits in Seminary with a grade point average of not less than 2.0 (2.0 = C grade), meeting all the departmental course requirements.
3. Two credits in Field Experience with an option of earning two credits in ministry experience.

Program Outcomes

A. Interpret the Bible in its parts and in its whole through use of its original languages and appropriate exegetical and hermeneutical methods
B. Formulate a comprehensive view of the main teachings of the Bible
C. Proclaim God’s saving work in Jesus Christ through the public and private ministries of the Word and Sacraments
D. Demonstrate skills for leading congregations in living as called, gathered, sanctified and sent communities in Christ
E. Examine the historical, theological, and missiological dimensions of the Christian faith
F. Demonstrate a personal love for God, His Church, and the world

This overview assumes a student who is able to study full-time (14-18 credits per semester). Some students find it wise to reduce their academic load per semester to accommodate their family, employment, or pace of learning.

\(^5\)Equivalent course to be approved by the Academic Dean
The Master of Theological Studies (MTS) is designed for personal enrichment for lay ministry and for various church staff positions. Although this degree is not designed for pastoral ministry, it can be used in a variety of church ministries. The MTS is a two-year (full-time is 14-18 credits per semester) graduate program that results in the conferring of a master’s level degree. A bachelor’s degree is required for entrance into the MTS program.

The MTS degree is granted to seminary students upon the completion of 60 credits with a grade point average of not less than 2.0 and upon the recommendation of the faculty.

Program Outcomes

- A. Interpret the Bible in its parts and in its whole through use of appropriate exegetical and hermeneutical methods.
- B. Formulate a comprehensive view of the main teachings of the Bible.
- C. Communicate God’s saving work in Jesus Christ through God’s saving work in Jesus Christ through the public private ministries of the Word
- D. Demonstrate skills for leadership within congregations
- E. Examine the historical, theological and missiological dimensions of the Christian faith
- F. Demonstrate a personal love for God, His Church, and the world

Diploma in Christian Ministry

The Diploma in Christian Ministry is designed to prepare mature students who sense a call later in life to serve within the Church of the Lutheran Brethren or in other church bodies or mission organizations but do not have the Bachelor’s degree which is prerequisite for the Master of Divinity Degree. The Diploma in Christian Ministry provides an opportunity for students who have completed 32 general education credits as prescribed to complete a program of ministry training without receiving a formal academic degree.

The General Education prerequisites are required in the belief that they are needed for the student to have the basic skills to benefit from this course of study leading to being prepared for Christian ministry.

The student will follow essentially the same course of study as prescribed for the Master of Divinity degree.

General Education Requirements for the Diploma in Christian Ministry

(32 credits)

At a minimum, the student must meet the following general education requirements prior to admission into the program:

Communications (6 credits)
- Speech 3 credits
- English Composition 3 credits

Behavioral/Social Science (12 credits)
- Western Civilization, I, II 6 credits
- General Psychology 3 credits
- Introduction to Sociology 3 credits

Humanities/Fine Arts (6 credits)
- Introduction to Philosophy 3 credits
- Literature 3 credits

Natural Science/Math (3 credits)

The following are also required either prior to or following admission:

Humanities Electives (5 credits)

Total General Education Requirements 32 credits

In addition, 92 credits of seminary credits are also required. The Diploma in Christian Ministry will be granted to students who have completed the 32 credits of prescribed general education requirements plus the 92 required credits outlined in the Seminary Diploma in Christian Ministry program of study.

*This overview assumes a student who is able to study full-time (14-18 credits per semester). Some students find it wise to reduce their academic load per semester to accommodate their family, employment, or pace of learning.

This course is taught in an independent study format. Arrangements are made with the New Testament Professor.

NT 103, NT 604, NT 640, and NT 636 are required for the Diploma in Christian Ministry.

Equivalent course to be approved by the Academic Dean.
Certificate of Theological Studies

At Lutheran Brethren Seminary, we are eager to serve men and women sensing a call to pursue theological education in order to serve more effectively as a layperson. The Certificate of Theological Studies (CTS) is a non-degree program that offers the student a wonderful opportunity to experience the equivalent of one year in seminary in order to develop a deeper understanding of his/her faith and to explore God’s leading in his/her life for future ministry.

Candidates for the Certificate of Theological Studies might include the following: adult learners who are interested in full or part-time study, those preparing specific local or overseas cross-cultural mission assignments, or college students who wish to attain theological and biblical grounding for future study or vocation. In addition to the required core courses, the CTS offers many choices in biblical and theological electives with emphases in Lay Ministry, Bible and Theology, and Mission. If full-time study is possible, a student may complete a CTS program in one year.

As with all other programs at LBS, CTS courses are taught at the graduate level. If a student should later be admitted for an LBS degree or diploma program, all of the credits earned in the CTS may be applied.

General Education Requirements for the Certificate in Theological Studies (32 credits)

At a minimum, the student must meet the following general education requirements prior to admission into the program:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Communications (6 credits)</th>
<th>Behavioral/Social Science (12 credits)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>

<td>3 credits</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The following are also required either prior to or following admission:

| Humanities Electives | 5 credits |

Total General Education Requirements 32 credits

The Certificate in Theological Studies is granted to students who have completed the 32 credits of general education requirements prescribed above, plus an additional 30 credits (10 core required credits, 20 credits in electives) as outlined in the CTS program of study.
The following core courses are required of all students in the CTS program.
10 credits

- NT 635  New Testament Introduction 4
- EB 611  Torah & Covenant History 3
- ST 821  Systematic Theology I 3

In addition to the above core requirements, students will complete the program with electives from other courses listed in the spring and fall schedule. (See p. 29 for 2011-2012 Tentative Course Offerings. For other course options in the catalogue that are not in the Fall/Spring schedule, consult with your assigned faculty advisor or the Registrar.) 20 credits

For students wanting a CTS with an emphasis in Lay Ministry, we especially recommend including electives from the following:

- PT 901  Homiletics 2
- PT 907  Spiritual Care 3
- PT 908  Pastoral Theology 3
- PT 932  Theology & Practice of Evangelism 3
- PT 920  Worship (offered every other year) 2

For students wanting a CTS with an emphasis in Bible & Theology, we recommend including electives from the following list:

- HT 715  Church History 3
- HT 722  Survey of American Christianity 3
- EB 613  Old Testament Poetry & Wisdom 3
- ST 823  Systematic Theo. III 3

For students wanting a CTS with an emphasis in Mission, we recommend including electives from the following list:

- WM 751  The Church in Mission 3
- WM 755  Cross-Cultural Communication in Mission 3
- WM 757  World Religions and New Religious Movements 3
- PT 932  Theology & Practice of Evangelism 3

This course is taught in an independent study format. Arrangements are made with the New Testament Professor.
Seminary Courses

Old Testament Studies

OT 601 Beginning Hebrew 3 credits
This course is an introductory study of the basic morphology, syntax and vocabulary of Biblical Hebrew. The goal of this course is to prepare the student to translate and exegete Biblical Hebrew.

OT 602 Introduction to Hebrew Exegesis 3 credits
This course builds on the student’s knowledge of Biblical Hebrew to aid the student to engage in a thorough, analytical study of a biblical text. The aim is to develop a method of exegesis which will assist in the preparation of a soundly biblical and practical sermon or teaching presentation. Emphasis in this course will be given to working with middle-level Hebrew grammar and syntax based on a grammatical-historical method and applying fundamental skills in Hebrew to basic interpretation of biblical texts.

OT 603 Exegesis of Old Testament Narrative 2+1 credits
This one-semester course is designed to familiarize the student with the translation and exegesis of Old Testament narrative. Beginning in Genesis selected narrative passages will be studied from the Hebrew Old Testament. Special attention will be given to placing the finished product of this exegesis into homiletical form. OT 601-602, or their equivalent required.

OT 604 Exegesis of the Psalms 2+1 credits
This one-semester course is designed to familiarize the student with the translation and exegesis of Old Testament poetry. Special attention will be given to placing the finished product of this exegesis into homiletical form. OT 601-602, or equivalent required.

OT 605 New Testament Use of the Old Testament 2+1 credits
This course would deal with some of the more complex areas of hermeneutics and textual criticism involved in the New Testament’s citations of the Old Testament. Various theories concerning the use of the Old Testament by the New Testament will be discussed. A working knowledge of Greek and Hebrew is required.

OT 606, 607 Biblical Hebrew Reading 1 credit
Guided readings in selected portions of Biblical Hebrew are designed to provide a continuous review of phonology, grammar, and vocabulary. OT 601-602 required. This course aims specifically at Hebrew reading and translation. Thirty hours of work in the above areas are equal to one credit.

Biblical Studies

EB 100 Biblical Interpretation 2 credits
This course covers the science and art of Biblical interpretation. Attention is focused upon principles of grammatical-historical hermeneutics. In addition to the general principles, special attention is given to interpretive principles that govern the interpretation of types, prophecy, parables, etc.

EB 600 Biblical Interpretation 2 credits
The science and art of Biblical interpretation. Attention is focused upon the principles of the historical-grammatical-theological approach of Lutheran hermeneutics. In addition to the general principles, special attention is given to the principles that govern the interpretation of types, prophecy, and parables.

EB 101 The History and Literature of the Old Testament 3 credits
An introduction to and broad survey of the history and literature of the books that make up the Old Testament. Each book will be surveyed in light of its historical background in the life and faith of ancient Israel. This course is designed to provide the student with the opportunity to gain a basic understanding of the content form, and history of the Old Testament.

EB 102 The History and Literature of the New Testament 2 credits
An introduction to the history and literature of the New Testament, beginning with a brief survey of the Intertestamental Period. Critical problems associated with each book will be discussed and a rapid survey of the contents of the twenty-seven New Testament books will be conducted. The New International Version will be used.

EB 611 Torah and Covenant History 3 credits
An introductory study of the canon, form, historical reliability, and the Law-Gospel theology of the books of the Torah and Covenant History. A three-fold emphasis will be evident in this course.
1. How the deuteronomic theology of the Torah is imprinted on the historical books of Joshua, Judges, Samuel, Kings, Chronicles, Ezra, and Nehemiah.
2. A study of each individual book in light of its historical origin and background with an emphasis upon how its message contributes to the Messianic hope of humanity fulfilled in Jesus Christ.
3. The Old Testament’s origin of Christ’s Great Commission to reach the world with the Gospel will be explored.
EB 612 Old Testament Prophets  3 credits
An introductory study of the canonicity, content, form, historical reliability, and theology of the Major Prophets, Daniel, and the twelve Minor Prophets. Each book will be studied in light of its historical origin and background with an emphasis upon how its message contributes to the Messianic hope of humanity fulfilled in Jesus Christ. The relevancy of the prophetic message of Law-Gospel to contemporary preaching will be explored.

EB 613 Old Testament Poetry & Wisdom  3 credits
An introductory study of the canonicity, content, form, historical reliability, and Law-Gospel theology of Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and the Song of Solomon. Each book will be studied in light of its historical origin and background with an emphasis upon how its message contributes to the Messianic hope of humanity fulfilled in Jesus Christ. The use of each book in ministry will be explored.

EB 651 Genesis  2 credits
A study of the canonicity, content, form, historical reliability, and theology of the first book of Holy Scripture. This book will be studied in light of its Mosaic background with an emphasis upon its relevance for the original Hebrew audience and how its message contributes to the remainder of the Bible. Care will be taken to trace the origin and development of the Messianic hope of humanity evidenced in this book.

EB 655 Deuteronomy  2 credits
A study of the canonicity, content, form, historical reliability, and theology of the fifth book of Holy Scripture. This book will be studied in light of its Mosaic origin and historical background with an emphasis upon how "deuteronomic" theology contributes to the remainder of the Bible and the Messianic hope of humanity fulfilled in Jesus Christ.

EB 658 Exegesis of Old Testament Texts  2 credits
This course is a hands-on approach to developing Christ-centered sermons, Bible studies, and devotions from the Old Testament. In working with various Old Testament texts the student will learn to apply the hermeneutical relationships of Law-Gospel and Promise-Fulfillment which inseparably join the Old and New Testaments through their fulfillment in Jesus Christ. A practical use of the whole Bible by Christians will be emphasized.

EB 659 Job and a Biblical View of Suffering  2 credits
Starting with the text of Job appropriate Biblical passages will be examined that deal with the Christians response to suffering. The Theology of the Cross will be contrasted with the Theology of Glory, and justification will be studied as solely the work of God. The goal of this course is to give the student a thoroughly Biblical view of suffering that will enable one to work through the difficult questions brought on by hardship.

EB 660 Psalms  2 credits
A study of the Psalter in which a select number of the various literary types of Psalms are examined in the light of their historical context and Christological application. Each student is expected to read the entire book of Psalms during the semester. This course is designed to deepen the student's devotional use of the Psalms and enable him to preach, teach, and lead worship from the Psalter.

EB 664 Isaiah  2 credits
A study of the canonicity, content, form, historical reliability, and theology of the eight-century prophet Isaiah. This course is designed to provide the student with the historical background to Isaiah's oracles, followed by an analysis of the structure, theology, and Messianic predictions found in this book. The goal of the course is to better understand Isaiah's unified theological message and come to an awareness of how this message participates in the Christocentric focus of the Scriptures.

EB 665 Jeremiah  2 credits
A study of the canonicity, content, form, historical reliability, and theology of Jeremiah. This book will be studied in light of its historical origin and background with special emphasis upon how its message contributes to the Messianic hope of humanity fulfilled in Jesus Christ.

EB 667 Ezekiel  2 credits
A study of the canonicity, content, form, historical reliability, and theology of Ezekiel. Attention will be given to the nature of apocalyptic literature and how Ezekiel fits into various eschatological views. This book will be studied in light of its historical origin and background with special emphasis upon how its message contributes to the Messianic hope of humanity fulfilled in Jesus Christ.
EB 668 Daniel 2 credits
A study of the canonicity, content, form, historical reliability, and theology of Daniel. Attention will be given to the nature of apocalyptic literature and how Daniel fits into various eschatological views. This book will be studied in light of its historical origin and background with special emphasis upon how its message contributes to the Messianic hope of humanity fulfilled in Jesus Christ.

EB 669 Hosea 2 credits
In no other prophet is the love of God more clearly demonstrated than in Hosea. The message of God’s great love for Israel and His desire for reciprocal love is what the prophet Hosea delivered on behalf of a heartbroken God to a loveless nation. In spite of his announcement of the coming judgment brought about by Israel’s habitual national unfaithfulness to God, Hosea was also called to speak of the Lord’s free and faithful love. Using the analogy of the prophet’s own marriage, God pictures for us in Hosea not only His unyielding righteousness but also His tender love for that which is utterly abhorrent and His willingness to pay the price that would restore people back to Him.

EB 670 Messianic Themes 2 credits
A research seminar designed to enable the student to study the relationship between Old Testament texts, persons, events, institutions, and their New Testament counterparts. The student will be allowed to pursue areas of personal interest under the supervision of the instructor. The goal of this course is to familiarize the student with the unity of the two Testaments as one body of Scripture.

New Testament Studies

NT 103 Beginning New Testament Greek 4 Credits for Diploma (no credit for M-Div)
The purpose of this course is to achieve intermediate competency in New Testament Greek in order to study the New Testament in Greek. This course is taught in an independent study format. Arrangements are made with the New Testament Professor.

NT 604 Introduction to New Testament Exegesis 3 credits
Development of proficiency in reading and studying Greek by translating and exegting selected texts from the New Testament. Prerequisite: NT 103

NT 636 Galatians 3 credits
An in-depth study of the entire letter of Paul to the Galatians. Emphasis is given to exegesis and translation with a view to preparing a series of expository sermons and/or a biblical study of Galatians.

NT 639 Ephesians 2 credits
An exegetical study of Paul’s letter to the church at Ephesus. An approach to the study of the church (chapters 1-3) and practical Christian living (chapters 4-6). Prerequisite: NT 604 or equivalents.

NT 635 New Testament Introduction 4 credits
A broad-based study of the New Testament: its place in history; its development as canon; its theology and interpretation; its challenges and criticism; and its use in Christian ministry.

NT 640 Exegesis of New Testament Texts 3 credits
Use of the Greek text in the study and preparation for sermons and biblical studies. Readings will be taken from Epistle, Gospel and some OT Septuagint lessons of the LCMC Lectionary. Prerequisite: Greek

EB 643 Study of New Testament Text 4 credits
An inductive study of Gospel and Epistle texts based on the English text.

EB 680 The Gospel of Matthew 2 credits
This course involves a survey of the content and structure of the Gospel of Matthew with special attention to the Messiahship and Kingship of Jesus as fulfillments of Old Testament prophecy.

EB 681 The Gospel of Mark 2 credits
This course involves a survey of the content of Mark’s Gospel with special attention to the matter of Markan priority. The motif of Jesus as Servant will be considered.

EB 682 The Gospel of Luke 2 credits
The longest of the four Gospels, Luke presents Jesus as the Savior of all humankind. Special emphasis is placed in Luke’s Gospel on the historical validity of our understanding of Jesus’ life and mission.

EB 683 The Gospel of John 2 credits
Unique among the four Gospels, this Gospel portrays Jesus as the God-Man, the Word who became flesh. Special attention is paid to such Johannine themes as light, darkness, sin, regeneration, life, etc. The organization and structure of the Gospel of John is studied in some depth as well.

EB 684 Romans 2 credits
Treated as the basic Biblical manual for doctrine, the book of Romans places particular emphasis on human depravity, justification, and sanctification. Christian ethics are viewed as growing out of the doctrine presented in chapters one through eleven. Throughout, God’s grace is stressed.
EB 685 1 & 2 Corinthians 2 credits
A devotional study of the epistles of I and II Corinthians with special attention given to the problems of the Corinthian Church as an example of a church just converted from paganism. The Corinthian problems are also seen as problems of our contemporary society, and Paul’s solutions as applicable to our society as they were to Corinth.

EB 686 Galatians 2 credits
Whereas NT 636 is an exegesis of Galatians based on the Greek text, this course is a devotional and practical examination of Galatians based on the English text. Special attention is paid to Paul’s teaching of justification by faith and its emphasis in the Lutheran Church. Luther’s unabridged commentary on Galatians is required reading.

EB 687 Acts & the Life of Paul 2 credits
Viewing Acts 1:8 as the Key to understanding the book, this course surveys the contents of the Book of Acts as the story of the first generation of the Church. Special focus is brought to bear on the ministry of St. Paul the Apostle.

EB 688 Ephesians 2 credits
A devotional and practical study of the Epistle, particularly in its teaching regarding the church.

EB 689 Philippians, Colossians, Philemon 2 credits
A devotional and practical study of these books using the inductive method of study.

EB 690 Pastoral Epistles 2 credits
A devotional and practical study of Paul’s letters to Timothy and to Titus. A study of the offices and the organization of the church as Paul outlines them in these three epistles.

EB 691 Hebrews 2 credits
A devotional and practical study of the epistle to the Hebrews. Attention is given to its Christology and the use of the Old Testament in its theology.

EB 692 James 2 credits
A devotional and practical study of the book using the inductive method of study with special concern for the relationship of faith and works.

EB 693 1 Peter 2 credits
This course is given to provide the occasion for entering the thought and meaning of this epistle on the subject of living daily with hope through the Gospel in the midst of “various trials.” Special attention will be given to its teaching on the church, baptism, eschatology, ethics, and Christ’s descent into hell.

EB 695 Revelation 2 credits
An exegetical, historical, and doctrinal study of the Apocalypse of John with consideration of the preterist, historic, idealist, and futurist positions.

EB 697, 698, 699 Directed Readings 1-3 credits
Directed readings are pursued under the guidance of the professor in the department of instruction. One credit per semester may be earned in this way, with a maximum of three credits.

Historical Theology

HT 215 Church History 3 credits
A study of the history of the Christian Church in its context from the Apostolic era to the present, tracing its development with particular emphasis on the individuals, groups, institutions, pattern of thought, events, and ideas. The course includes movements such as the Reformation, Orthodoxy, Pietism and their relationships to the flow of God’s mission.

HT 715 Church History 3 credits
This course is a study of the history of the Christian Church and its contexts from the Apostolic era through the Reformation and the Age of Enlightenment, tracing its development with particular emphasis on the individuals, groups, institutions, patterns of thought, events and ideas that have shaped the Church. Attention is also given to the various structures and forms utilized by the Church as it participates in God’s mission in the world.

HT 721 Theology of the Cults 2 credits
A careful study of the origin, history, and theology of the more common cults and sects comparing them with Lutheran teachings and examining them in the light of the Word of God. Research projects and readings in related literature are included in the course requirements.

HT 222 A Survey of American Christianity, American Lutheranism and the Lutheran Brethren 3 credits
This course is a survey of the American church movement from its roots to the present, exploring the interactions between individuals, groups, institutions, events and ideas. Emphasis is given to the various Lutheran groups, with particular focus upon the roots and development of the Church of the Lutheran Brethren.
HT 722 A Survey of American Christianity, American Lutheranism and the Lutheran Brethren 3 credits
This course picks up the discussion from HT 715 (which is a pre-requisite for this course), with emphasis on the American Church movement from its roots to the present. Particular emphasis is given to the various Lutheran groups including the roots and development of the Church of the Lutheran Brethren. Early American revivalism, European influences, the fundamentalist/modernist controversy, Liberation Theology and other important interactions between individuals, groups, institutions, events and ideas are also covered.

HT 841, 842, 843 Directed Readings 1-3 credits
Directed readings are pursued under the guidance of the professor in the department of instruction. One credit in a semester may be earned in this way, with a maximum of three credits.

World Mission

WM 251 The Church in Mission 3 credits
This course seeks to increase the student’s understanding of the role of the local church among peoples and nations, and the need to apply a biblical ecclesiology to cross-cultural, social, economic and political experiences. The course further seeks to probe the dual aspects of what the local church is by nature and how that informs its tasks.

WM 751 The Church in Mission 3 Credits
This course serves as a biblical and missiological introduction to God’s mission and how the nature of the church informs its role in mission today. Students will examine these concepts from a theological and missiological perspective, and apply them to the context of the church’s varied ministries.

WM 255 Cross Cultural Communication in Mission 3 credits
This course seeks to increase the student’s understanding of individual and group characteristics, identity/world view (e.g. ethnicity, race, gender, class) and their knowledge of traditions of various groups in North America and around the world. Students will examine their role as incarnational representatives of Christ and His church in a culturally diverse world.

WM 755 Cross Cultural Communication in Mission 3 credits
This course seeks to increase the student’s understanding of individual and group characteristics, identity/world view (e.g. ethnicity, race, gender, class) and their knowledge of traditions of various groups in North America and around the world. This course requires one or two short cross-cultural mission trips outside of class. Past trips have included the Red Lake Indian Reservation and the Phillips neighborhood in Minneapolis. Students will examine their role as incarnational representatives of Christ and His Church in a culturally diverse world.

WM 257 World Religions and New Religious Movements 3 credits
A Study of origins, histories, and teachings of the major non-Christian religions of the world with a view to understanding these religions on their own terms, learning from them and dialoguing with them from the perspective of a Christian worldview. These include Basic Religions (formerly Animism), Hinduism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Taoism, Shinto, Islam, Judaism, Marxism, New Age and Secularism.

WM 757 World Religions and New Religious Movements 3 Credits
This course introduces students to the histories, teachings and practices of major world religions and contemporary religious movements with a view to understanding these groups on their own terms and dialoguing with them from a biblical perspective. Included in the study are Basic Religions (Animism), Hinduism, Buddhism, Chinese religions, Shinto, Mormonism, Jehovah’s Witnesses, and varieties of secular and New Age movements.

WM 760 Cultural Anthropology 2 credits
This study deals with an understanding of the indigenous culture of people groups around the world. This class will help the student know how to approach these groups in such a way that will lessen the possibility of becoming an offense or being rejected by these people of a different culture. Though this course is aimed primarily at the overseas missionary, it will also help the pastor who remains in the U.S. to be aware of cultural differences between congregations and geographical areas and how to adjust to them. This class will make God’s workers more effective in communicating the way of life to people both at home and overseas.
WM 761, 762, 763 Directed Readings in World Mission 1-3 credits
Directed readings are pursued under the guidance of the professor in the department of instruction. One credit a semester may be earned in this way, with a maximum of three credits.

WM 765 Missionary Development and Orientation 2 credits
This is an introductory course designed to give the student a clear understanding of Christian mission. This includes the theological, historical, and practical reason for mission. Several areas which are often misunderstood are dealt with, such as what are the present responsibilities of the missionaries, the relationships of the mission with the emerging indigenous church, missionary children, etc. The life and development of the missionary and his/her own spiritual survival and growth are important aspects to this course.

WM 770 Biblical Theology of Mission 2 credits
This course is foundational to the entire mission enterprise as it deals with the Scriptural basis for mission. It traces God’s purpose for the nations through both the Old and New Testaments. The entire Scriptural reason for missions is included in this course.

WM 775 History of Christian Mission 2 credits
A study of the expansion of the early church from Pentecost continuing into the 20th century. Several questions will be considered, such as the following: Is the work of missions, as traditionally carried on, a thing of the past? Has the evangelical message, as traditionally preached to the nations, been in error? Have the methods of establishing churches with converted people been wrong? What are the present policies for the mission churches in assuming full responsibility for themselves? These and many more current trends and methodology will be covered.

WM 780 Current Issues in Mission 2 credits
The first semester will focus primarily on Ethnotheologies, that is, theologies which have arisen predominantly in the Third World and which are generally a reaction to or a response to religious, cultural or political situations. While many of these theologies have their roots in the work and teachings of missions, most often they have deviated far from orthodox Christianity and moved into a mixture of Marxism and liberal theology.

WM 781 Current Issues in Mission 2 credits
The second semester focuses on various other issues, such as syncretism, totalitarianism, ecumenism, contextualization, holistic mission, worldview, and power encounter.

WM 785 Lutheran Brethren World Mission in Perspective 1 credit
This course traces the history of the overseas mission effort in the Church of the Lutheran Brethren, focusing on the Lutheran Brethren World Mission’s current ministries and outlines its goals for the future.

WM 790 Islam in America and Around the World 2 credits
What do nearly one billion (1/5 of the world’s people) believe about God? Christians? The Bible? Why should you know? Islam is more than a religion; it is a way of life. Wherever one goes these days, Islam is demanding attention. The face of Islam is changing, and it will affect our communities and country significantly in the next decade. This course will inform you about Islam, its history and beliefs, what the Koran says and most importantly, practical ways you can share your faith with a Muslim.

WM 957 Practical Experience in Cross Cultural Ministry 1-2 credits
This course will give students supervised extensive, documented ministry experience in a cross cultural ministry environment. The experience must be approved and sponsored by the professor of mission and evangelism. The student will, with the professor, determine the academic goals for the experience and decide how these goals will be met and demonstrated. Credits are determined depending on the length of experience and the extent of academic work completed.

ST 853 Introduction to Lutheran Thought 2 credits
This course will explore the major themes of Lutheran Thought through the study of the writings of Martin Luther, the Lutheran Confessions, and the Scriptures. The course will be conducted in the manner of a seminar that will involve a combination of learning activities such as lectures, discussions, and presentations.

Practical Theology

PT 900 Overview of Ministry Preparation 1 credit
An introduction which concentrates on the ingredients, needed for the student’s formation for Christian ministry. It will include interaction with synodical ministry leaders and pastors. The study will fall under four categories-The Community Life Called ‘Seminary’; Personal Formation and Calling; Professional Formation and Ministry Tasks; Global Formation and Contemporary Issues.

PT 901 Homiletics 2 credits
A study of the principles that govern the preparation and delivery of sermons. Representative homiletical literature is surveyed and each student is given at least one opportunity to preach to the class.

PT 903-904 Advanced Preaching 2-2 credits
Students are assigned pericope texts and special topics for sermon preparation and delivery. Sermons are given in classroom and/or chapel. Prerequisite: PT 901.

PT 905 Senior Preaching 1 credit
Practice preaching for seminary seniors. Sermons are given in classroom, chapel, or church services. They are critiqued in class. Prerequisite: PT 903-904.
PT 907 Spiritual Care  3 credits
An introduction to spiritual care giving built on a foundation of biblical, historical, and theological study, with an emphasis on the use of Law and Gospel. The student will investigate the difference between spiritual care and psychological therapy, study Egan's Helping Model, begin to master the basic skills of spiritual dialogue, and become familiar with various practical situations, such as crisis, spiritual, marital, and pre-marital counseling.

PT 908 Pastoral Theology  3 credits
Using the Pastoral Epistles as the basic texts, the practical aspect of the pastor's work is considered. Such units as the pastor's office and call, the pastor's role as shepherd especially in pastoral care settings, administering the sacraments, pastoral concerns in conducting weddings and funerals, conflict resolution, stewardship, and the pastor's relationship to the Synod are all carefully reviewed and studied. Open to seniors only.

PT 909 Leadership in Ministry  2 credits
A study of the nature styles and applications of leadership in ministry. The course will address the following questions: What does it mean to be a servant leader as represented by Jesus Christ? How do leadership styles vary because of individual and congregational differences? What leadership responsibilities will a person likely encounter in a ministry setting?

PT 910 Introduction to Youth Ministry  2 credits
This course is an overview of a wide variety of issues in the area of ministry to youth. The format of the course will include lecture, class discussion, and guest lecturers. The course will focus on the social and cultural world of the adolescent, the role of the youth pastor, the role of the family, and possible strategies for doing youth ministry in a local congregation. For CTS students an additional 1 credit for lab.

PT 911 The Teaching Ministry of the Congregation  2 credits
A survey of the teaching ministry of the congregation and the pastor's role in giving oversight to all the teaching ministries of the church. Special attention is given to the following areas confirmation instruction; choosing Sunday School materials and training Sunday School teachers; teaching the Scriptures to the adult learner; and training Bible Study leaders.

PT 920 Worship  2 credits
An introduction to the history, theology, and practice of worship including guidelines for Christian worship in the Lutheran church.

PT 932 The Theology and Practice of Evangelism  3 credits
A study of the Biblical theology of evangelism with an emphasis on personal witnessing. Attention will also be given to the matter of setting up an evangelism program in the local church.

PT 934 Principles of Church Growth  2 credits

PT 948, 949 Stephen Ministries  1-2 credits
Taken as an alternative for PT 950, 951 Field Experience, this supervised ministry involves training lay ministers in appropriate listening and Christ centered caring skills. The certified Stephen Ministry Training Program schedule usually involves evening meetings from November through March. It involves a total of 50 hours of classroom and on-site training with additional time spent completing chapter readings and some written assignments (about 1-1.5 hours per week). The total time commitment of 90 hours for two semesters is equivalent to PT 950-51.

PT 941, 942, 943 Directed Readings  1-3 credits
Directed readings are pursued under the direction of the professor in the department of instruction. One credit a semester may be earned in this way, with a maximum of three credits.

PT 950, 951 Field Experience  1-2 credits
The intent of these courses is to provide seminary students with defined and intentional 'hands on' ministry experience in supervised situations. Off-site resources used include: local congregations; retirement centers, nursing homes, etc. In addition, readings, journaling of experiences, and interaction with the on-site supervisor and the seminary Field Experience supervisor aid the student in sharpening his/her God-given gifts for ministry.

PT 952 Clinical Pastoral Education  5 credits
This educational 'process model' of learning enables students to develop ministry skills through individual and group interviews, teaching seminars and clinical case presentations. Integration of theological reflection with practical experience is a key part of this program. The course focuses on three goals: 1) understanding one's role as pastor and person; 2) developing pastoral skills in relations to one's theology; 3) applying tools of behavioral assessment to the pastoral role. Students receive one-half unit of certification in CPE.
PT 953 Pastor as Person in Ministry  3 credits
This ‘process model’ of learning enables students to develop ministry skills through individual and group interviews, teaching seminars and clinical case presentations. Integration of theological reflection with practical experience is a key part of this program.
The course focuses on three goals:
1) understanding one’s role as pastor and person;
2) developing pastoral skills in relation to one’s theology;
3) applying tools of behavioral assessment to the pastoral role.

PT 954, 955 Practical Experience  1-2 credits
In addition to Field Experience credits, two additional credits may be earned through supervised practical ministry experience, such as teaching release time school, doing jail ministry, or carrying out a special summer ministry opportunity. Arrangements for earning such credits must be made with the Seminary Field Experience Supervisor.

PT 956 Practical Experience in Youth Ministry  2 credits
This course will give the students defined and intentional ‘hands on’ ministry experience in supervised situations outside of the classroom. These experiences will also provide opportunities for reflection and growth in ministry skills.

PT 965 Personal Wellness in Ministry  5 credits
PT 965 uses a process model of learning which enables students to develop ministry skills through individual and group interviews, teaching seminars and clinical case presentations. The course includes supervised clinical practice of ministry, an individual contract for learning which the student and instructor develop together, group processing of ministry experiences including feedback from one’s peers, and evaluation by the supervisor and the instructor.

PT 975 Personal Ministry Component  2 credits
This course is designed to help the student come to understand and love the local congregation even though it is imperfect. Using the attributes of the Church as a guide and systems theory as a tool the student learns how to examine the multi-faceted elements of a congregation including its identity, context and boundaries and to comprehend why a church is greater than the sum of its parts. Graduating seniors begin to research the places they will be serving in preparation for transition to their new ministries.
APPLICATION

EMBRACING THE WORD
REACHING THE WORLD
Application

Formal application for admission to the Seminary must include the following:

1. The application blank, properly completed.

2. A transcript of all academic credits earned in high school and college. These must be sent in time to be evaluated by the Admissions Committee before the student is finally accepted for class work.

3. A personal letter written by the applicant in which he/she states clearly his/her experience of salvation and call to Christian service, his/her church background, and his/her present doctrinal views.

4. The letter of application and all other necessary papers should be in the registrar’s office no later than one month before the opening of the semester during which the applicant intends to begin his/her training. Applications will receive prompt and thorough consideration by the Admissions Committee and the applicants will be notified of the decision regarding admission.

All acceptances are for a one-year probationary period. At the end of this time the scholastic record and other pertinent matters concerning each student will be evaluated by the Seminary faculty. On the basis of that evaluation each student will be either approved or disapproved to continue his/her studies.

5. A signed waiver giving authorization for a background check.
