From the President...

Welcome to the Lutheran Brethren Seminary!

Is the Holy Spirit calling you into ministry? Are people telling you that you have gifts for pastoring? Are you sensing that you want a stronger biblical foundation for life? This catalog is designed to help you decide if our programs might serve as the Holy Spirit's tools to prepare you for the next step in following Christ.

As a school we value:

- God's matchless grace to us in Christ through the cross and the empty tomb.
- The Holy Spirit's work leading us to repentance and giving us faith to believe the gospel.
- Christ's call to bring this the gospel to our world.
- The authority of the Bible as God's Word.
- Excellence and integrity in our work and in our lives.

As a faculty we value:

- The academic preparation necessary for teaching.
- Personal experience in ministry.
- Ministry preparation with a clear theological foundation.
- Living and teaching with a passion for the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Graduates of the Master of Divinity and Diploma in Christian Ministry programs are equipped with knowledge, skills, and attitudes to serve as pastors and missionaries.

The Master of Theological Studies degree offers students a strong biblical and theological foundation for serving the Lord in many ministry roles including callings as parish nurse, youth pastor, missionary, and in Christian education.

The one-year Certificate of Theological Studies program serves several unique preparation needs such as:

- Adult learners preparing for lay ministry or specific overseas mission assignments.
- College-level students wanting a solid theological foundation.
- Youth ministers needing biblical and practical training for ministry.

Our Seminary is chartered by the Church of the Lutheran Brethren. We are accredited by the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS) and hold membership in the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA).

Our campus is located in Fergus Falls, Minnesota, an all-American City with a population of 13,000. The city is a great place for families, with many parks and both private and public school opportunities. Situated along the peaceful Ottertail River, the setting provides a reflective atmosphere conducive to theological study and ministry preparation.

Please give us a call and visit our campus or contact us through our website. If you are unable to relocate, all of our programs are available by distance education. We would love to visit with you about the nature of God's call and about partnering with you in your preparation for ministry.

In Christ's Service,

GENERAL INFORMATION

History

The roots of Lutheran Brethren Seminary are found in the great spiritual revivals of the 1890s, in the Northwestern Free Church Mission School, and in the founding of the Church of the Lutheran Brethren in 1900. In these spiritual revivals large numbers of young adults came to a knowledge of salvation, and desired to study the Scriptures.

In response, Rev. Halvor Jenssen founded the first Lutheran Bible school in the United States, the Northwestern Free Church Mission School, in a farmhouse near Lowry, MN, in 1897. The next year classes were held in a church in Belgrade, MN, and in 1901 the school moved to Grand Forks, ND, and was renamed "Northwestern Lutheran Bible School." The school offered courses in biblical studies, missions, doctrine, personal evangelism, and Christian education. Several Lutheran Brethren students attended or graduated from that school before it closed in 1903.

In less than a year after the founding of the Church of the Lutheran Brethren in 1900, the need for a seminary for training Lutheran Brethren pastors and missionaries was felt. In response, the 1903 Synodical Convention authorized the founding of the Lutheran Bible School in Wahpeton, ND. The pastor's course offered theological training for persons entering ministry. The Bible course prepared young adults for more effective work in congregations as laypersons.

In 1916, a four-year high school was added. In 1918, the school was moved to Grand Forks, ND. In 1935, the school relocated to the campus of the former Park Region Luther College in Fergus Falls, MN. In 1948, it was renamed "Lutheran Brethren Schools," giving the high school the name "Hillcrest Lutheran Academy," and retaining the name of "Lutheran Bible School and Seminary" for the Bible and Seminary departments.

The Bible school became the Lutheran Brethren Junior Bible College and, in 1992, the program was redesigned and became the Lutheran Center for Christian Learning (LCCL). The LCCL was discontinued in 2004.

Lutheran Brethren Seminary was fully accredited by TRACS in 2012. In 2013, the school's distance program was approved and accredited. In 2015, the school moved across campus to a newly constructed facility with expanded library space, a student lounge, and integrated distance-learning technology.

Lutheran Brethren Seminary serves those preparing for ministry and leadership in the Church of Jesus Christ and in particular the Church of the Lutheran Brethren. The Seminary offers at a master's level: Master of Theological Studies, which is a two-year program; Master of Divinity (three years); Diploma in Christian Ministry (three years); and a one-year Certificate of Theological Studies with emphasis in Lay Ministry, Bible & Theology, or in Mission.

The Mission

Mission Statement

Lutheran Brethren Seminary serves the Church and the world by preparing servants of Christ for a life of ministry in God's mission and for equipping His people to serve in His mission.

Institutional Calling

Jesus said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age" (Matthew 28:18-20).

Called by the Church of the Lutheran Brethren, the Seminary serves the Church and world by living in and preparing others to live in the gospel of Jesus Christ and His call to participate in His mission of grace to bless all nations.

LBS prepares people to enter the diverse cultural contexts of the world through particular ministries as Christ's servants shaped by His words and wounds, speaking His gospel in word and deed. The Seminary approaches its ministry in dependence on the Triune God who speaks truth through His inspired Scriptures.

Institutional Objectives

Graduates of Lutheran Brethren Seminary will:

1. Embrace a Christ-centered understanding of Scripture.
2. Exhibit skills for leading God's people in serving His local and global mission.
3. Demonstrate gospel-shaped skills that correspond to the doing of ministry.
4. Model Christ-like character in life and in ministry.

Our prayer is that students will be shaped by the words and wounds of Christ to live as servants of Christ in God's church and world.

The Seminary fulfills its mission in partnership with and by the support of the Church of the Lutheran Brethren. This Church's mission is "In response to God's person and grace, we worship Him with everything we are in Christ, serve one another in Christian love and share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with all people." This Church lives out its passions in the following core values:¹

- The Bible is central in our congregations and in our households.
- The Gospel is our treasure and our joy.
- We revere God's Law.
- The Word and the Sacraments are God's precious means of grace.
- We cherish the love and fellowship of God's people.
- We long for people to trust in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, to come to know Him in a personal way.
- We seek to be people of prayer.

¹ See https://www.clba.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/07/We_Believe_Core_Values_Statement.pdf for a commentary on these core values.

What We Believe

The Doctrinal Statement of Faith of the Lutheran Brethren Seminary

- A. The Bible, including both Old and New Testaments as originally given, is the verbally and plenary inspired Word of God and is free from error in the whole and in the part, and is therefore the final authoritative guide for faith and conduct.
- B. There is one God eternally existent in three distinct persons in one divine essence, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- C. God the Father has revealed Himself as the Creator and preserver of the universe, to Whom the entire creation and all creatures are subject.
- D. God created Adam and Eve in His image to live in fellowship with Him. They fell into sin through the temptation of Satan and thereby lost fellowship with God. Through their disobedience the entire human race became totally depraved, that is, self-centered sinners who oppose God, and who by nature are unable to trust, fear or love Him. They are subject to the devil, and are condemned to death under the eternal wrath of God.
- E. Jesus Christ, the Eternal Son, is the image of the invisible God. To accomplish our redemption, He became fully human, being conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. Jesus Christ, who is true God and true man, by His perfect obedience and substitutionary death on the cross, has purchased our redemption. He arose from the dead for our justification in the body in which He was crucified. He ascended into heaven, where He is now seated at the right hand of God, the Father, as our interceding High Priest. He will come a second time personally, bodily, and visibly to gather the believers unto Himself and to establish His millennial kingdom. He will judge the living and the dead and make an eternal separation between believers and unbelievers. His kingdom shall have no end.
- F. The Holy Spirit is a divine person eternally one with the Father and with the Son. Through the Word of God, He convicts people of sin, persuades them to confess their sinfulness to God and calls them to faith through the Gospel. He regenerates, sanctifies, and preserves believers in the one true faith. He comforts, guides, equips, directs, and empowers the church to fulfill the great commission.
- G. The knowledge and benefit of Christ's redemption from sin is brought to the human race through the means of grace, namely the Word and the sacraments.
 - 1. Through the Word of the Law, God brings sinners to know their lost condition and to repent. Through the Word of the Gospel, He brings sinners to believe in Jesus Christ, to be justified, to enter the process of sanctification, and to have eternal life. This occurs as the Holy Spirit awakens them to see their sin, convicts them of their guilt of sin, and calls them to repent and believe, inviting and enabling them to accept God's grace in Christ. Each one who thus believes is instantly forgiven and credited with Christ's righteousness. The Word then teaches and guides the believer to lead a godly life.
 - 2. In the Sacrament of Baptism, God offers the benefits of Christ's redemption to all people and graciously bestows the washing of regeneration and newness of life to all who believe. God calls the baptized person to live in daily repentance, that is, in sorrow for sin, in turning from sin, and in personal faith in the forgiveness of sin obtained by Christ. By grace we are daily given the power to overcome sinful desires and live a new life in Christ. Those who do not continue to live in God's grace need to be brought again to repentance and faith through the Law and Gospel.

Because the sinfulness of human nature passes on from generation to generation and the promise of God's grace includes little children, we baptize infants, who become members of Christ's believing church through baptism. These children need to come to know that they are sinners with a sinful nature that opposes God. Through the work of the Holy Spirit, they need to confess their sinfulness and yield to God; and possess for themselves forgiveness of their sin through Jesus Christ, as they are led from the faith received in infant baptism into a clear conscious personal faith in Christ as their Lord and Savior and being assured of salvation, rely solely on the finished work of Christ, and the power of the Gospel to live as children of God.

3. In the Sacrament of Holy Communion, Christ gives to the communicants His body and blood in, with, and under the bread and wine. He declares the forgiveness of sin to all believers and strengthens their faith.

H. Eternal salvation is available to every living human being on earth by God's grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone. This salvation consists of an instantaneous aspect and an ongoing, continual aspect.

1. Justification is God's gracious act by which He, for Christ's sake, instantaneously acquits repentant and believing sinners and credits them with Christ's righteousness. At that moment, God gives each one who believes a new and godly nature, and the Holy Spirit begins the process of sanctification. There is no place for human effort in justification.

2. Sanctification is God's gracious, continual work of spiritual renewal and growth in the life of every justified person. Through the means of grace, the Holy Spirit works to reproduce the character of Christ within the lives of all believers, instructing and urging them to live out their new nature. The Holy Spirit enables believers more and more to resist the devil, to overcome the world, and to count themselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus. The Holy Spirit produces spiritual fruit in and bestows spiritual gifts upon all believers. He calls, empowers and equips them to serve God in the home, in the community, and as part of the Church Universal. The process of sanctification will be complete only when the believer reaches glory.

I. The Church Universal consists of all those who truly believe on Jesus Christ as Savior. The local congregation is an assembly of believers in a certain locality among whom the Gospel is purely taught, and the sacraments are rightly administered. The confessing membership of the local congregation shall include only those who have been baptized into "the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit," confess personal faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, maintain a good reputation in the community and accept the constitution of the Church of the Lutheran Brethren. It cannot, however, be avoided that hypocrites might be mixed in the congregation; that is, those whose unbelief is not evident to the congregation.

J. The Church of the Lutheran Brethren practices the congregational form of church government and the autonomy of the local congregations. The office of pastor and elder is to be filled by men only. The synodical administration has an advisory function as it relates to the congregation and an administrative function as it relates to the cooperative efforts of the congregations.

K. The Lutheran confessions are a summary of Bible doctrines. We adhere to the following confessional writings: The Apostles' Creed, Nicene and Athanasian Creeds, unaltered Augsburg Confession, and Luther's Small Catechism.²

Academic Philosophy

The Seminary is committed to the concept that we are spiritual, mental, emotional, social, and physical beings. Therefore, the educational process must include the development of each of these dimensions. The educational process is not limited to the classroom, but includes the entire range of interactions within the students' environment.

The Bible holds a primary and central place in the curriculum. It is recognized that the Bible is God's special revelation and that it is the source and norm for the institution's Statement of Faith. The Seminary also reserves the right to pursue its search for truth through diligent study of humanity and other elements of God's creation that constitute general revelation.

The pursuit of truth, in the context suggested above, should be approached with vigor and reverence. The basis of our teaching and learning should be that the source of our truth about God and His relationship with humanity is located in the Scriptures.

Academic Freedom

The Seminary encourages both faculty members and students in the search for truth. The right to examine all relevant data will be protected. Academic freedom and neutrality are not considered as identical. It should be recognized that the intent to advance a particular point of view, so long as all the facts are accessible and the argument is distinguished from the inquiry, is not antithetical to academic freedom.

Ethical Values and Standards

Lutheran Brethren Seminary is a community of Christian men and women who seek to live out their lives under the authority of God's Word (2 Tim 3:16; Rom 12:9). We believe and teach that God's people are fitted for Christian service not by academic achievement and spiritual gifting alone, but by spiritual maturity and moral character that demonstrate the fruit of the Spirit as well. Ministry qualifications include biblical values and standards such as a burden for lost souls, personal integrity, compassion for the poor and needy, a desire that God's will be obeyed on earth, sensitivity to the needs of the communities to which we belong, and mutual accountability. Staff and employees at LBS are expected to exhibit these moral characteristics.

The ethical standards of LBS are shaped by a commitment to the supreme authority of the Bible regarding all matters of Christian faith and living. The Seminary community also desires to honor and respect the moral tradition of the churches who entrust students to us for education. Enrollment in or employment by LBS includes a commitment by each individual to adhere to all of the Seminary's published policies and ethical standards, as found in the student and faculty handbooks, and to abide by local, state, and federal laws, in so far as they apply to the Seminary. The Seminary encourages individuals to follow, where feasible, the steps of verbal confrontation and dialogue described in the Scriptures, such as Matt 18:15-22. When any member of a Christian community is living in violation of what the Bible teaches about Christian conduct (Gal 6:1-2), the Seminary urges the practice of loving, verbal confrontation.

The Seminary encourages any of its community who are in special need to seek out education and counsel, and it stands ready to assist with available resources. The LBS community is committed to extending biblical love to all persons, including those involved in strife, marital conflict, or the struggle for sexual purity. The LBS community is committed to demonstrating the personal forgiveness available through Christ for all human failure. (https://www.clba.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/08/Statement_on_Sexuality.pdf)

For infractions of laws, regulations, policies and standards, persons may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from the institution. Such disciplinary action may be imposed for violations that occur off campus when the violation may have an adverse effect on the educational mission of the Seminary. While the Seminary reserves the right to require disciplinary action when necessary, the use of Seminary disciplinary procedures should always be viewed as a last resort. In no way do they exempt the Seminary from making every possible effort to guide the honest pursuit of truth, to encourage a biblical approach to sexuality, to support stable family life, and to model community relationships that convey Christ-like love to our neighbors and respect for people and property.

Accreditation

Lutheran Brethren Seminary is a member of the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS) [15935 Forest Road, Forest, VA 24551; Telephone: (434) 525-9539; e-mail: info@tracs.org], having been awarded Reaffirmation I of its Accredited Status as a Category III institution by the TRACS Accreditation Commission on April 25, 2017. This status is effective for a period of ten years. TRACS is recognized by the United States Department of Education (USDOE), the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), and the International Network for Quality Assurance Agencies in Higher Education (INQAAHE).

I-20 Authorization

Lutheran Brethren Seminary is authorized under Federal law to issue I-20 forms through the Student Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS) and to enroll nonimmigrant international students.

Veterans Administration

Lutheran Brethren Seminary is approved by the Minnesota State Approving Agency for training under the GI Bill.³

FERPA

The Seminary supports the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, a federal law that pertains to the release of and access to educational records. This statement of policy incorporates the rights accorded and the privacy guaranteed the student by this act.

FERPA grants students certain rights in regards to their educational records. They are:

- The right to inspect and review the student's educational records within 45 days of the day the Seminary receives a request for access. Students shall submit written requests to the Registrar that identify the record(s) they wish to inspect. The Registrar will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected.
- The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes is inaccurate or misleading. Students may ask the Seminary to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They should write the Seminary official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record that they want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. A school official is a person employed by LBS in an administrative, supervisory, academic or support staff position; a person or company with whom LBS has contracted; a person serving on the Board of LBS; a student serving on an official committee or assisting another school official in performing his/her professional responsibilities. If the Seminary decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the Registrar will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his/her right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment.
- The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. One exception that permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests.
- The right to file a complaint with the US Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the Seminary to comply with the requirements of FERPA:

ADMISSIONS

Admission Requirements

Prerequisites

Admission to a Seminary program of study is given to men and women of approved Christian character who possess such aptitudes as would seem to qualify them for ministry in the Church. While the degree, diploma and certificate programs are all taught at the graduate level, the Certificate of Theological Studies program is specifically designed for personal enrichment and growth in lay ministry.

The basic academic requirement for admission to one of the master's programs is a bachelor's degree or its equivalent. For the Diploma in Christian Ministry (DCM) and the Certificate (CTS) programs, the student must meet the required prerequisites or their equivalents. See DCM and CTS program descriptions.

An official transcript of college work must be forwarded to the Registrar for evaluation before registration is completed.

Computer Literacy

All LBS programs require the use of a computer to complete course requirements. It is expected that all students have access to a computer, the Internet, and an email account. The following fundamental skills are assumed for all students:

1. Computer Basics - An understanding of the information processing cycle, hardware, common components, and an understanding of software, including operating systems and commonly used application software for word processing
2. Internet Basics - An understanding of the appropriate use of current network technology and online resources
3. Microsoft Word Basics - Microsoft Word is standard for word processing and is required for the production of reports and papers. For a free set of video tutorials on these and other computer basics, see: <http://www.gcflernfree.org/computerbasics>

Application Process

Seminary applicants will have prayerfully considered God's leading in their life, seeking His direction through a study of the Bible, through counsel with respected leaders in the church and affirmation received from family and friends. They have explored LBS by looking at the catalog, the web site, and perhaps visited the campus, and are ready to apply. Timeliness of the application is important and is dependent upon prompt responses from the references and schools from which transcripts were requested. New applicants will want to plan far enough in advance so that all of the necessary documents required for processing the application will be in by the deadline for applications. The application process is as follows:

- Applicants begin the application process by accessing the application on the LBS website, www.lbs.edu and clicking on the "Request Application" button.
- Applicants are emailed a link to the online application. Upon submission of the application, forms are emailed to the references.
- It is the applicant's responsibility to request official transcripts be sent directly to LBS from all colleges, universities and other learning institutions attended previously.
- Once the student's file is complete, the Admissions Committee reviews the application. A decision is communicated to the applicant normally within two weeks.
- Background checks will be processed during PT900 (Introduction to Seminary Education).

The whole process from start to finish usually takes about one month.

Deadlines for Applications:

Fall	July 1
Spring	November 15

Advising

Students are assigned to individual faculty members for academic advisement. Students will continue with that faculty advisor through their graduation. Faculty advisors assume the following academic objectives for each student in their advising:

- Assist in orienting students to seminary life and LBS community
- Assist students in developing educational goals
- Assist students in determining the way to reach educational goals through program planning
- Provide accurate information regarding academic programs, procedures and policies
- Provide students with or direct the student to career information
- Be an example to students of a godly professional educator

SELECTING A PROGRAM

Certificate in Theological Studies

The Certificate of Theological Studies (CTS) is a nondegree program that offers the student a wonderful opportunity to experience the equivalent of one year in seminary in order to develop a deeper understanding of his/her faith and to explore God's leading in his/her life for future ministry. For further information, see the section on Academic Programs.

Diploma in Christian Ministry

The Diploma in Christian Ministry (DCM) is designed to prepare mature students who sense a call later in life to serve within the Church of the Lutheran Brethren or in other church bodies or mission organizations but do not have the bachelor's degree which is prerequisite for the Master of Divinity Degree. For further information, see the section on Academic Programs.

Master of Theological Studies

The Master of Theological Studies (MTS) is designed for personal enrichment for lay ministry and for various church staff positions. This degree may also serve those who desire to continue their studies toward a doctoral degree. For further information, see the section on Academic Programs.

Master of Divinity

The Master of Divinity Degree (MDiv) is a graduate degree in theology which prepares one to serve within the Church of the Lutheran Brethren, in other church bodies, and in mission organizations. For further information, see the section on Academic Programs.

Non-Degree Applicant

A person who does not have a bachelor's degree or its equivalent may apply to the MDiv program as a Non-Degree applicant. The number of students in this category is limited to 10 percent of the total MDiv student body. The Non-Degree applicant must be at least 35 years of age; provide a written explanation indicating that completing a bachelor's degree or its equivalent is unrealistic; and have completed at least 60 hours of credits (90 quarter hours) at an accredited college or university, with the following minimum number of semester credits in the specific areas.

- 12 in English and humanities (composition, communication, journalism, literature, art, drama, music, philosophy, foreign languages- also Greek and Hebrew)
- 3 in public speaking
- 15 in social sciences (anthropology, economics, education, history, political science, psychology, sociology)
- 6 in science, mathematics, physical science; and
- 24 electives

Must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better (on a 4.0 scale)

Non-Degree applicants are not officially admitted into the MDiv program until after they have demonstrated the ability to do graduate level work by completing 30 semester credits with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher (on a 4.0 scale).

Distance Education

Distance education at LBS provides an opportunity for individuals who are unable to attend classes on campus to receive the same educational offerings and ministry preparation as those who attend classes on campus. Through the use of robust and user-friendly video and instructional management software, LBS offers students the opportunity for regular and substantive interaction with both faculty and fellow students. Distance education students can participate in classes synchronously (i.e., live as the class takes place on campus) or asynchronously (i.e., by watching recorded class sessions) as the student's schedule allows. Distance students at LBS enroll in courses in the same sequence as on campus students and will have the same professors as on campus students attending the same courses.

To meet the demands of distance education, LBS utilizes a distributed learning format which allows instruction and learning to occur independent of time and place. This means that the professor, students, and content can all be located in different, noncentralized locations.

Although the student may pursue any educational programs (e.g., CTS, DCM, MTS, or MDiv) through distance education, it is recommended that the distance education student consider opportunities to come on campus periodically (e.g., once or twice a year). Distance education students will need to purchase certain books for their LBS education journey. Additionally, it will be essential that the distance education student gain access to a high-quality theological library. This could be a combination of the Seminary's own electronic library resources, one's personal resources, a church's library, and/or a local public, private, university, or seminary library. Prior to the start of the first semester of study, distance education students are required to join all new students on campus to participate in the two-and-a-half day intensive course called PT900 Introduction to Seminary Education.

Transfer of Credit

A student desiring to transfer credits from another institution and be admitted to a certificate, diploma or degree program at LBS must be a student in good standing at that institution and must submit official transcripts of all previous undergraduate and graduate course work. (See Academic Probation and Good Standing.) Undergraduate work is normally not transferrable, although credit might possibly be given for course work in biblical languages. Credits for course work taken at other accredited graduate-level institutions with a grade of C or above are normally granted complete or near-complete transfer credit upon approval by the Registrar when such work parallels courses listed in the Seminary catalog. Although the credits will apply toward graduation, grades and grade point averages earned at another institution do not transfer. Quarter-hour credits will normally be converted to semester hour credit. At least 25% of credits required for the DCM, MDiv, MTS, or CTS must be taken at LBS.

Certificate and Degree Transfer

Students having graduated from Lutheran Brethren Seminary with a Certificate of Theological Studies (CTS) may transfer credits as applicable into the Master of Theological Studies (MTS) or Master of Divinity (MDiv) programs. Students having graduated with an MTS may transfer credit hours as applicable into the MDiv program.

Nondiscrimination Policy

Lutheran Brethren Seminary does not discriminate on the basis of gender, race, national or ethnic origin, handicaps, or age in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and financial aid programs, and other Seminary administered programs. LBS is authorized under federal law to enroll nonimmigrant alien students.

Enrollment

No student can enroll in an LBS course until they have completed the admissions process and have been admitted into a program of study. A new student must be accepted prior to the beginning of the required PT900 orientation course noted in the Student Orientation section.

Student Orientation

SO101 Student Orientation takes place in individually scheduled sessions prior to the on campus course PT900 Introduction to Seminary Education. All incoming students who intend to take courses for credit are required to take PT900, which is a two and a half day intensive course prior to the beginning of their seminary studies.

Review of Student Progress/ Probationary Status

A student's first year of seminary is considered probationary. At the end of the first year of study (or, for part-time students, with completion of equivalent credits), the faculty will review his/her academic progress and potential for ministry. At this time, the faculty will recommend whether the student should continue in the program.

Academic Policies

Academic Load

The degree programs as outlined in this catalog (pp. 29-35) are designed to be completed within a specific time-frame. In order to complete the program as outlined, a credit load of 14-18 credits per semester would be recommended. However, some students find it wise to reduce their academic loads to accommodate their family life, employment, or pace of learning. For example, a student who takes four years to work through the three-year MDiv/DCM curriculum (pp. 30, 33) would be met with the faculty's understanding and support.

It is policy that a student in any degree program is not allowed to take more than 18 credits per semester unless given special permission by the Dean.

It is recommended that a student taking 14 or more credits per semester be employed for no more than 20 hours per week.

Class Schedule

Normally, classes begin each day at 7:45 a.m. with 60-minute class periods. Classes are usually completed each day by 2:40 p.m.

Although the Seminary attempts to schedule its semester classes on a Monday through Thursday academic week, students are expected to be available for classes Monday through Friday. When Monday classes are not held due to a special event or holiday, Monday classes may be moved to Friday.

Credit Hour

It is generally agreed that one credit equals approximately 39 hours of work. Usually, this involves 13 hours of face to face class time and 26 hours outside of class work.

Adding or Dropping a Course

It is the student's responsibility to inform the instructor and the registrar that a course is being dropped. For all course changes, the student must complete a Drop/Add form, which is available in the Registrar's office and on Populi. This form requires a signature by both the student and the student's advisor.

A student may not add a course or transfer from one course to another after the close of the second week of the semester.

If a student wishes to drop out of a course after the last day to drop a course, they may request a withdrawal from the class and a grade of W will be placed on their transcript for that course. Such a withdrawal must be requested before the last day of class.

Incomplete Course Work

Unless an extension is granted, a course not completed by the last day of the semester will be finalized at the discretion of the instructor, which could result in a failing grade for the course.

Course Extension Request

If a student has experienced special circumstances that prevent the completion of a course by the designated time set by the instructor, he/she may request an extension. This policy also applies to courses taken by intensive and directed study.

- 1 The student must file a "Course Extension Form" (available in the Registrar's office) for each class in which an extension is desired to be completed at the designated time set by the instructor.
- 2 Upon completion of the extension form, the student must secure the written approval of the course instructor. The instructor will determine the validity of the request and may choose to refuse an extension. Upon the signed approval, the form will be placed in the student's file by the instructor.
- 3 The maximum course extension deadline is six weeks from the last day of the semester.
- 4 During the extension period the course will be listed as "I" (Incomplete).
- 5 If the extension date is not met, the course will be graded on the basis of work submitted before the completion deadline.
- 6 If the incomplete course is required for the student's degree and receives the final grade "F", the course must be retaken with full payment of tuition.
- 7 No student will be allowed to graduate with an incomplete or failed required course.

Academic Integrity

It is expected that all students will complete their studies in a responsible and honest manner. Cheating, submitting the same work for more than one course, and not giving proper acknowledgment for the ideas and data of others is irresponsible and dishonest and therefore subject to disciplinary action.

Attendance Policy

Faithful class attendance is expected. Students are permitted absences during a semester without penalty up to the number of times a class meets each week. After this, absences will reflect adversely on the student's final grade. Class attendance of at least 75% is required in order to be eligible to receive credit for the course. Excused absences are granted for illness and other necessary situations. Common courtesy dictates that the instructor be notified of any absence so the proper notation can be made. Non-emergency absences should be approved beforehand by the instructor. Students who miss a class period are responsible for watching the class recording and meeting any additional requirements for class participation set by the instructor.

Handicap Accessibility

The LBS building is handicap accessible from the parking lot where there are marked handicap parking places. There is also an accessible route from the parking lot into and through the building. This is the same route that would be used in an emergency situation. All emergency plans specifically state that faculty and students are to be available to give assistance to those who might need it. If one believes that special assistance or accommodations are needed in order to participate in the benefit of a service, program, or activity or more information is desired, you may contact the Dean's Office.

Any complaints addressing the physical accessibility of the LBS building may be made in writing or in person to the Office of the Lutheran Brethren Seminary President.

Student Complaint/Grievance Policy

As disciples of Jesus Christ, Lutheran Brethren Seminary community cherishes the practice of Christian love as of prime importance. We seek to follow the exhortation of the Apostle Paul: "Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace" (Eph 4:3). Disagreements and differences sometimes strengthen the church, but sometimes they divide. Members of the LBS community will endeavor to settle differences with others in a Christian manner in accord with the Word of God (Gal 6:1; Matt 18:15-17) and with school policy, and to avoid resorting to a court of law (1 Cor 6:5-7). The objective of this grievance policy is to resolve disputes/concerns as quickly and effectively as possible. The office of the Dean is responsible for maintaining all information and records on student complaints. (For more details see the Student Handbook.)

Filing a Complaint to the Seminary Accrediting Agency

Any student has the right to notify the Seminary's accrediting agency regarding the status of any grievance using the following contact information: Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS), 15935 Forest Road, Forest, VA 24551. Call 804-525-9539.

Courses Taken as Audits

Any student who wishes to take a course without credit or grade may do so by registering for the course as an audit. A seminarian accepted into a program of study may audit any class free of charge. Students not in a program will audit courses at the standard fee of $100 per credit and $150 per credit for language courses. Auditors are expected to attend class or watch class recordings with the same regularity as those registered for credit. Class attendance of at least 75% is required for the course to be recorded as an official audit on the student's transcript. If attendance expectations have not been met, the course will not appear on the student's record. Under no circumstances are auditors given academic credit.

Reading and writing assignments are not required and examinations are not given to auditors. Exceptions with regard to prerequisite requirements may be made with the permission of the instructor and in consultation with the Registrar when appropriate. Auditors may participate in class discussion only upon prior consent of the instructor. Spouses of Seminary students who have been accepted into a program are encouraged to audit courses and may audit any course free of charge without applying for admission. Faculty and staff and their spouses also may audit free of charge without applying for admission.

Regularly enrolled students who wish to change their status in a course from credit to audit must inform the instructor and the Office of the Registrar by the fifth week of a semester.

Courses Taken by Directed Study

From time to time it is necessary for a student to take one or more courses in the Seminary curriculum by directed study, that is, on a one-to-one basis with the professor. A student may transfer in from another institution for his/her last year of seminary and one or more courses may not be available during that year. Occasionally, licensed pastors, licensed lay pastors or a colloquy student will need a course in this manner. Furthermore, a student may be required to take a course by directed study because he/she neglected to take it when it was offered during the regular cycle.

Because of added expense created by production, administration, and faculty involvement, directed study courses have an additional $50 per credit hour charge added to the normal tuition fee unless taken to fulfill required elective credits.

Directed study courses must be completed within the semester or summer in which they are started. The same policies for incomplete work and extensions apply to courses taken by directed study.

Supervised Ministry Education

The LBS Supervised Ministry Education (SME) prepares LBS students for a life of ministry in God's mission via a supervised experience-based approach to their education. Each student seeking the MDiv degree or DCM will complete 280 hours of ministry practice, curriculum, and supervision in practical theology courses PT912 - PT915, PT952, and PT953.

Using an adult-learner model, students' ministry experiences will be assessed with a developmental focus on their spiritual maturity, emotional maturity, leadership, communication, and conflict management. Institutional Objectives (2), (3), and (4) and MDiv/DCM Program Outcomes (D) and (F) will be addressed through the following in the program:

Educational Modules: Educational modules will be didactic in nature with value placed on giving and receiving feedback for personal and professional awareness, care, and development.

Processing Groups: Students will participate in various supervised group settings in which they will demonstrate personal, group, and ministry related leadership and management skills.

Personal Development Plan: The personal development plan identifies a student's specific learning goals as well as strategies for accomplishing them with a focus on pastoral formation, pastoral competence, and pastoral reflection.

Psychological Education: Students and student spouses will complete two series of psychological inventories, have corresponding sessions with a psychologist, and participate in two half-day educational workshops pertaining to the inventory series.

Ministry Site Experience: Students will identify a ministry to serve for a minimum of 100 hours over the course of the program and will reflect on their experience with the director of SME, faculty, and their ministry site mentor.

Ministry Site Mentor: Students will identify a mentor familiar with their ministry setting that meets the SME guidelines and initiate regular meetings throughout the program with this mentor to address their learning and development.

Practical Experience Credits

Elective credits may be earned through supervised practical ministry experiences. Arrangements for earning such credits must be made with the Office of the Dean.

Time Limits

Requirements for the Master of Divinity (MDiv) degree/Diploma of Christian Ministry (DCM), normally completed in three years, must be met within eight years of initially enrolling. Requirements for the Master of Theological Studies (MTS), normally completed in two years, must be completed within five years. Requirements for the Certificate in Theological Studies (CTS), normally completed in one year, must be met within three years. Students are encouraged to take into consideration commitments of family, ministry and work when planning their course schedules. A petition for extension of these times limits must be made to the Dean of the Seminary and is subject to approval by the entire faculty.

Leave of Absence

A student may request a leave of absence of up to one academic year (two consecutive semesters). A student intending to take a leave of absence from LBS must consult with his or her academic advisor and the Dean of the Seminary, and must complete the Leave of Absence/Withdrawal Form and submit it to the office of the Registrar. Ceasing to submit assignments and/or failure to attend classes does not constitute a leave of absence, nor does it relieve students of their financial obligations to the Seminary. A completed Leave of Absence/Withdrawal Form must be submitted to the office of the Registrar before any refunds can be given (see refund section). If granted a leave of absence, the student may be readmitted and resume studies at any time during the leave period without reapplication.

Withdrawal/Dismissal

A leave of absence for more than two semesters is categorized as a withdrawal. The procedure for requesting a withdrawal is the same as that for requesting a leave of absence with the additional requirement that a student must apply for readmission to the Seminary before resuming studies. Dismissals are handled according to the guidelines under the Ethical Values and Standards or Academic Probation.

Admitted but Does Not Register

If a student has been accepted for enrollment in an LBS program, but does not register for courses within one academic year (two or more consecutive semesters), that student must apply for readmission before pursuing his or her studies at LBS.

Guidelines for Readmission

If a student withdraws or is dismissed from LBS and subsequently desires to reenroll, the student must submit a letter requesting readmission and reapply. The letter must indicate what the student has done since leaving seminary, what their current goals are, and how finishing a seminary program contributes to accomplishing those goals. If readmitted to a program, the student is subject to the graduation requirements and fees set forth in the catalog at the time of readmission and registration.

1. Filing an application for readmission and/or any other reapplication materials does not guarantee readmission to LBS.
2. The student must demonstrate that he or she still meets the admission standards for the given program of study.
3. Applications for readmission must include transcripts of any courses completed at another institution since the student was last admitted to LBS.

The Admissions Committee requires the following of a student applying for readmission:

1. Absent for more than two but less than five semesters: Submit the Application for Admission and one pastoral reference.
2. Absent for five or more semesters: Submit all application materials required of any new applicant according to the current catalog. While any application for readmission will be processed in a manner consistent with the above guidelines, the Seminary authorizes the Admissions Committee to make the final determination as to what will be required in all cases. The Admissions Committee will review all previous records of and may request a personal interview with the applicant before deciding to readmit the student or to deny his or her application. The decision of the Admissions Committee is final.

Declaration for Graduation

Students must declare in December, at the time of registration, their intent to graduate. Approval must be received by the Dean after the students' records are reviewed by the office of the Registrar. The Seminary faculty conducts interviews with graduating students. All work for graduating seniors must be completed prior to graduation.

Ministry Placement

Ministry placement of Seminary graduates happens in accordance with the customary calling process that is initiated by the congregation, denomination, or other ministry extending a call to the candidate of their choosing. Those considering ministry placement within the CLB should inquire with the CLB Office of the President. Those interested in international ministry with the CLB should inquire with Lutheran Brethren International Missions (LBIM). We also encourage students to access the following resources available for free download on the CLB website: The Pastoral Calling Process and Ministers of the Gospel Handbook.

Academic Probation and Good Standing

LBS recognizes a student as being in good standing when the student is not on academic probation, has no incomplete work and is current with his or her financial accounts. At any time after the first year a student may be placed on academic probation if his/her grade point average falls below 2.00 or if there is incomplete work. Failure to correct the situation can result in dismissal. The student will have two semesters to bring his/her GPA up to 2.00. A student who has been asked to withdraw for academic or other reasons may reapply at some future time.

Transcripts

Requests for transcripts should be made to the Seminary Registrar. Official transcripts are issued only upon written authorization by the student. Official transcripts will be sent only to the institution or agency requiring them. Unofficial transcripts will be issued to the students for personal evaluation of academic progress. Three transcripts are issued without charge. The charge for each subsequent transcript is $5 pre-paid. If the transcript is to be issued by a given date, the Registrar's office must be informed in writing at least one week beforehand.

No transfer of credits or issuance of diplomas or degrees will be given unless all school bills are paid in full or satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Business/Finance Office. A transcript will not be sent out with an incomplete course listed on it or with an outstanding balance on that person's LBS account.

2. Second and third weeks, 75%
3. Fourth and fifth weeks, 50%
4. No refunds after the fifth week

Financial Aid

The churches of the Church of the Lutheran Brethren support the Seminary by providing two-thirds of the school's operating costs. In this way the amount of financial responsibility to the student is significantly reduced. The remaining one-third of the Seminary cost is covered through student tuition for which the student is responsible. Financial aid is available to assist some students with these tuition costs. No financial aid is available to Auditing students.

Health Insurance and Housing

Students are responsible for their own health insurance and housing.

Student Accounts

Student costs are payable at registration. If tuition is not paid in full, 10% of the tuition is due before students may begin classes. A payment plan may be arranged through the Seminary finance office. Students can register if account balances are less than $200 times the number of credits for which they are registering. A student's account must be paid in full or be current on an approved payment plan in order to receive a diploma, certificate, etc., or to obtain the release of official transcripts.

Veterans

Lutheran Brethren Seminary is approved by the Minnesota State Approving Agency for training under the GI Bill®. (GI Bill® is the registered trademark of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA).) Applicants for these benefits should apply for educational assistance at their nearest regional Veterans Affairs Office or Lutheran Brethren Seminary.

A person who meets the basic service requirements and who has been separated or discharged under conditions other than dishonorable may be entitled to educational assistance. A student receiving VA educational assistance is required to maintain satisfactory progress and conduct according to standards established and enforced by the institution, fully and clearly published in the institution's catalog, approved by the State Approving Agency, and accepted by the Veterans Affairs. If the student fails to maintain satisfactory progress or conduct, payments will then be suspended. Regardless of whether the student desires to remain in the same program or desires to change institutions or programs, VA counseling is required before benefits can be resumed.

Refund Policy for Veterans

For students enrolled under the provisions of Public Law 89-358, the school will refund the unused portion of tuition, fees, and other charges in the event the veteran or eligible person fails to enter the course, withdraws, or is discontinued at any time prior to completion. The amount charged to the veteran or eligible person for tuition, fees, and other charges for a portion of the course will not exceed the approximate pro rata portion of the total charges for tuition, fees, and other charges that the length of the completed portion of the course bears to its total length. LBS will not impose any penalty on the VA beneficiary student due to the delayed disbursement of VA funding under Chapter 31 or 33.

STUDENT LIFE

Community

Seminary is a great deal more than simply going to classes and doing one's assignments conscientiously. It is more than just learning theology as an academic discipline. It is growing in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ (2 Pet 3:18).

Every class should be seen as an opportunity to learn to know God better. To mature in one's appreciation of the greatness of God and of His grace in Jesus Christ is an outcome of one's seminary studies to be prized and pursued.

Seminary is also an ideal place to learn to know oneself better. The study of Holy Scripture and its formulation into Lutheran theology leads a person into the reality of one's sinfulness and need of God's daily forgiveness and renewing grace. Pastors, of all people, need to know themselves as repentant and forgiven sinners. We minister most effectively out of this brokenness.

Each believer in Jesus Christ has been given by the Holy Spirit one or more spiritual gifts (Rom 12:3-7; 1 Cor 12; Eph 4:11-13). It is to be hoped that through practical ministry opportunities, the affirmation of one's peers, and the study of the Scriptures, each student might come to a clear understanding of his/her gifts and place in the ministry of the body of Christ.

Jesus said to His followers on the night before He was crucified, "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another" (John 13:34-35). Lutheran Brethren Seminary is a community: a community of professors and students, a community of school families. God calls us to love and care for one another, to speak well of one another, and to encourage one another. Many of the friendship bonds formed in Seminary continue throughout one's life in the church.

Spiritual community includes caring for our brothers and sisters. Therefore we will keep watch not only of our doctrine, but also our lives so that we put no obstacle in the way of other believers. As St. Paul wrote to the young pastor Timothy, "... set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith and in purity" (1 Tim 4:12).

A.A. Pedersen Lectureship in Preaching

Beginning in October, 1991, the Lutheran Brethren Seminary has sponsored an annual lectureship in preaching named in honor of a former LBS president and faculty member who was esteemed for his gifts as a Bible teacher and preacher. Each year this lectureship brings to our campus one of America's ablest preachers. Participation by LBS students is expected and is also open to current and retired pastors and missionaries.

Past Lecturers include:

Dr. Walter Kaiser
Dr. Paul Maier
Dr. Carl Fickenscher
Dr. Reed Lessing
Dr. John Nunes
Dr. Bryan Chapell
Rev. Matt Popovits

Chapel

Students and faculty assemble for chapel on Tuesdays and Thursdays to glorify God through singing, prayer, and the proclamation of God's Word. The intent of these spiritual gatherings is to bring the Seminary community away from the demands and pressures of everyday life for worship and to receive spiritual care and nurture as a community in Christ. Weekly chapel is a vital part of our spiritual formation as individuals and as a Christian community, and an essential complement to our academic pursuits. Attendance is expected.

Church Life

Students are expected to be part of a church family while attending Seminary. There are several Lutheran Brethren and affiliate churches in the area where the students often find their church home.

Prayer Emphasis

Each semester, time is set apart for meditation and prayer. Additionally, students, faculty, and staff gather Wednesday mornings for a time of sharing and prayer.

Ministry Opportunities

Seminary students, especially after their first year, have opportunities to do pulpit supply preaching in various churches. Churches customarily give an honorarium for these services.

A number of churches in the area provide seminary students with part-time student pastor or youth pastor employment. These ministry opportunities provide an excellent combination of practical ministry experience, seminary study, and useful income. These positions may involve some or all of the following: pulpit preaching, confirmation instruction, visitation, and youth ministry. Arrangements and supervision for this type of part-time ministry employment are made through the Office of the Dean.

Student Association

The Seminary Student Association is organized with student officers and a faculty advisor. The Student Association meets periodically throughout the semester to conduct business and for prayer. A spring banquet is planned each year at which graduating students are honored. A Seminary Deacon Fund to help with special needs is managed by the students.

Sports

Although organized athletics are not a part of the Seminary program, students often find ways to enjoy sports.

Each year Hillcrest Academy sponsors an Invitational Basketball Tournament comprised of church teams from across the country. Seminary students often participate in this tournament by joining other organized teams.

Seminary students and their families also receive a membership discount at the local YMCA.

Seminary Women

Seminary Women is an organization that provides female students and the wives of seminarians opportunities for fellowship and support in Seminary life. The gatherings range from social activities to a weekly Bible study. One on one friendship and prayer support by a local prayer partner is also offered.

Entering Students of the 2022-2023 Academic Year

The Diploma in Christian Ministry is designed to prepare mature students who sense a call later in life to serve within the Church of the Lutheran Brethren or in other church bodies or mission organizations but do not have the bachelor's degree which is prerequisite for the Master of Divinity Degree (see Non-Degree Applicant section). The Diploma in Christian Ministry provides an opportunity for students who have completed 32 general education credits as prescribed to complete a program of ministry training without receiving a formal academic degree. The General Education prerequisites are required in the belief that they are needed for the student to have the basic skills to benefit from this course of study leading to being prepared for Christian ministry.

The student will follow essentially the same course of study as prescribed for the Master of Divinity degree.

Should a graduate of the LBS Diploma ever subsequently complete an accredited college baccalaureate degree, the Diploma degree may be exchanged for either an MTS or MDiv degree, upon the recommendation of the faculty, provided that: 1.) Diploma credits have not been used in another degree program; and 2.) all of the academic requirements stipulated in the current LBS catalog for those degrees are satisfied.

Program Outcomes

- A. Interpret the Bible in its parts and in its whole through use of its original languages and appropriate exegetical and hermeneutical methods.

Certificate of Theological Studies

Entering Students of the 2022-2023 Academic Year

At Lutheran Brethren Seminary, we are eager to serve men and women sensing a call to pursue theological education in order to serve more effectively as laypersons. The Certificate of Theological Studies (CTS) is a non-degree program that offers the student a wonderful opportunity to experience the equivalent of one year in seminary in order to develop a deeper understanding of his/her faith and to explore God's leading in his/her life for future ministry.

Candidates for the Certificate of Theological Studies might include the following: adult learners who are interested in full or part-time study, those preparing for specific local or overseas cross-cultural mission assignments, or college students who wish to attain theological and biblical grounding for future study or vocation. In addition to the prerequisite core courses, the CTS offers many choices in biblical and theological electives with emphases in Lay Ministry, Bible and Theology, and Mission. If full-time study is possible, a student may complete a CTS program in one year.

As with all other programs at LBS, CTS courses are taught at the graduate level. If a student should later be admitted to an LBS degree or diploma program, all of the credits earned in the CTS may be applied.
